'48 Class History

On September 5, 1944, forty-one bright-eyed girls and boys entered C. H. S. ready to suffer all the trials and tribulations of "green freshies."

The officers for our freshman year were Billy Joe Minto, president; Mary Lou Mattingly, vice-president; Jackie Asher, secretary; Howard Traphagen, treasurer; and Wanda Skinner, historian. Our sponsors were William Dauby and Mildred Vaughn.

At the end of the freshman year, three members received awards as follows: Arnold Groves, Athletic Award; Billy Joe Minto, Activities Award; and Wanda Skinner, Scholastic Award.

The number of members at the beginning of the sophomore year had decreased to thirty-six. William Dauby and E. Ruby Byerley were our sponsors. During the year our class was divided into two groups with Joe Harlen, president, presiding over Mr. Dauby's group and Jacqueline Minto, vice-president, presiding over Miss Byerley's group. The other officers for the year were Jackie Asher, secretary; and Billy Joe Minto, treasurer.

Our junior year was a happy year for us because we received our class rings and chose our senior class sweaters and jackets.

We were host to the senior class at the Junior-Senior Banquet in May of that year. This was an important occasion and we tried to entertain them royally at the Sunlight Hotel. A quartette from Evansville College provided entertainment.

Our sponsors were Foster Park and Edgar Etienne with Joe Harlen as president; Wilma Bush, vice-president; Jackie Asher, secretary; and Howard Traphagen, treasurer of the "jolly juniors."

Now we were due for the most important rank of honor—at last we were to be called Seniors.

Senior class officers were Allen Forsaith, president; Emma Lee Claycomb, vice-president; Edythe Suddarth, secretary; James Fuchs, treasurer; and Wanda Skinner, historian. We held our class election in much the same way as the National and State elections are held. We had two parties—the Nationalist and the Federalist—and we spent three days campaigning before the final election. All of the Nationalist officers were elected with the exception of the historian.

Senior sponsors were Cordelia Healy and E. A. Cushman. The class motto was: He Conquers Who Endures; the colors were blue and white, and the flower was the violet.

The Journalism class which consisted of eight members—Billy Joe Minto, Mary Lou Mattingly, Jackie Asher, Bettye Lou Wheeler, Wilma Bush, James Fuchs, Katherine Morris, and Loren Hicks—had charge of publishing the school paper, the HI-LIFE.

Our big accomplishment of the year was the publication of the NOTLENNAC whose staff consisted of Wilma Bush, Loren Hicks, Emma Lee Claycomb, Ralph Heck, Wanda Skinner, Bettye Lou Wheeler, Jackie Asher, James Fuchs, Mary Lee McFarling, and Jewell Burton. The publication of the NOTLENNAC was accomplished under the direction of E. Ruby Byerley.

National Honor Society members for our senior year were: Jewell Burton, Wanda Skinner, Loren Hicks, Wilma Bush, Mary Lou Mattingly, Jacqueline Minto, Allen Forsaith, and David Spencer.

CLASS WILL

- I, Jackie Asher, will my freckles to Ann Forsaith.
- I, Jewel Burton, will my guitar to Judy Cadwell. A great musician should be accomplished on a large variety of instruments.
- I, Wilma Bush, will my vast vocabulary to Curt Richey. Some of the words aren't even in the dictionary, Curt.
- I, Marjorie Carter, will my ability to get along with teachers to Allen Evans.
- I, Emma Claycomb, will my daintiness to Bessie Wilson.
- I, Ruth Carter, will my red hair to Daisy Baker.
- I, Imogene Conder, will my small size to Ellen Groves.
- I, Allen Forsaith, will my scientific ability to Ralph Goodson. I was just on the verge of discovering something even greater than the atom. Carry on, Ralph.
- I, James Fuchs, will my beautiful, rosy blush to "Tinker" Ramsey. It must be my blood pressure because I certainly am not embarrassed very easily.
- I, Arnold Groves, will my position as varsity captain to Ronnie Gaynor. You might have to grow an inch or two, Ronnie, but I think you're the man for the job.
- I, Joe Harlen, will my money-making schemes to J. E. Winn. So far, I haven't profited much by them, but according to the book, they really work.
- I, Ralph Heck, will my first place position as drummer to Nellie May. It just takes practice, Nellie.
- I, Loren Hicks, will my blond, wavy hair to David Braun. You'll have to train the waves, Brownie.
- I, Julia Hyde, will my book, "How To Get Engaged," to Lucille Spencer.
- I, James Johnson, who was willed six solids last year, do now will them to "Bugs" Dixon. Whew! I feel ten years younger!
- I, James Mason, will my mail order girl friend to Ralph Kendall.
- I, Lou Mattingly, will my pleasing personality and my nickname of "Peaches," to Gloria Dean Poore.
- I, Mary Lee McFarling, will my ability to tell jokes to Melvin Purviance.
- I, Billy Joe Minto, will Sarah to Paul Adams. I can't take her with me so I'll leave her in your good hands.
- I, Jacqueline Minto, will my flute to Bruce Conner.
- I, Katherine Morris, will my "scatter" brains to Jewel Parks.
- I, Lester Orr, will my knowledge of book-keeping to my old flame, Norma Jean.
- I, Robert Polk, will my intelligent understanding of psychology to Paul Minto.
- I, Norman Reed, will my glasses and curly hair to Norman Sciefers.
- I, Helen Rutherford, will my capacity for studying to Eddie Krieg.
- I, Robert Rutherford, will my chemistry work book to Mildred Mogan. I have all the correct answers written in it so it should be a great help.
- I, Glenn Schraner, will my graceful walk, that was so graciously willed to me last year, to C. W. Powers.
- I, Wanda Skinner, will my "brains" to Wilma Holland.
- I, Mary Smith, will my shortness to Anna Hicks.
- I, David Spencer, will my presidency of the Student Council to Homer Wheeler.
- I, Edith Suddarth, will my even temper to Mary Jean Thorn.
- I, Howard Traphagen, will my way with the Tell City women to Paul Schurrtter.
- I, Hilda Van Conia, will my place in Mr. Cushman's office to "Toots" Wheeler.
- I, Ralph Van Hoosier, will my methods of getting good grades in civics to John Lee Conway.
- I, Bettye Wheeler, will my way with the boys to Lois Sue Hay. Just remember what all I've told you, Sue, and you'll always be surrounded—either by the boys or their jilted girl friends.
- I, Donald Whitehead, will my bashfulness to Vencil Varble.
- I, Dorothy Young, will my quiet manner to Alice Ahl.

CLASS SONG

Farewell dear old school, we are leaving
With thoughts dear to us that are pleasing;
Farewell to our friends we're leaving behind
And thanks to our teachers for being so kind.
Out into this world we are going,
To try so hard to make a showing.
And so we bid adieu
With thoughts from all of you
To look back upon with great pleasure.
