Dedication

With heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for his untiring efforts, we, the Seniors of Cannelton High School, Class of '56, dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Joe Hafele.

He has helped to make our school life not only a profitable but also a very happy experience.

Class History

In the fall of 1952, 52 of the greenest students ever to enter Cannelton High School came together and formed the freshman class. We had 23 from Cannelton Junior High, 8 from St. Michael's, 8 from Rome, 7 from Tobinsport, and 6 from Consolidated. At our first class meeting we elected the following officers: Larry Polk, president; Sandy Braun, vice-president; Stephen Hay, treasurer; Janis Evans, secretary; and Carol Baker, Historian. Norman Lain, Leroy Rhodes, and Mary Ann Etienne represented our class in the student council along with our president Larry Polk. Coach Joe Hafele was selected as our sponsor. During the year Marilyn Hafele, Janice Sue York, Sandy Braun, and Mary Ann Etienne led the cheers for our freshman team. Awards were given to four freshman on class day. Stephen Hay received the activities award; Larry Polk, the sports award; and Richard Sanders and Carol Baker, scholarship award.

We entered our second year of high school with a class of 49 silly sophomores. The name fit us perfectly. We re-elected Larry Polk as our president and the other officers were Sandy Braun, vice-president; Mary Ann Etienne, secretary; Stephen treasurer; and Carol Baker, historian. That year our student council representatives were Betty Mattingly, Stephen Hay, Robert Harpe, and Larry Polk. Our sponsor was Coach Denny Ramsey. Sandy Braun became varsity cheerleader and many of the boys in our class participated in sports. We started building up our class treasury with bake sales and class dues. Both proved to be a headache, but we had to save money for a senior trip. Our silly sophomore class was very active. We went on a hayride and presented a convocation program. That program was the last of its kind ever to be given at CHS.

The fall of 1954 saw 46 jolly juniors enrolled at Cannelton High School. We were proud to be upper classmen at last. Larry Polk was again made president and Stephen Hay was vice-president, Mary Ann Etienne was secretary, Richard Sanders was treasurer, and Carol Baker remained historian. Our junior student council representatives were Floretta Schraner, Stephen Hay, Leroy Rhodes, and Larry Polk. We chose Mr. John Vardaman and Miss Marlene Day as our class sponsors and they spent much time helping us in all our activities that year. We earned money again by having bake sales and collecting dues, but our major earnings came from the sale of magazines and the sale of concessions at the basketball games. Sandy Braun and Nedra Gaynor were varsity cheerleaders. We gave the Junior-Senior Prom at the Hoosier Heights Country Club on May 7. The theme was "By the Sea" and we made fish for three months for the decorations. On Class Night Stephen Hay received the award given by the Kiwanis for an outstanding Junior.

The most important year of our high school education began in the fall of 1955 when 42 seniors returned to school. We lost one member during the year. At the first class meeting we re-elected the same officers we had had the previous year. They were Larry Polk, president; Stephen Hay, vice-president; Mary Ann Etienne, secretary; Richard Sanders, treasurer; and Carol Baker, historian. We chose Miss Marlene Day and Coach Denny Ramsey as our sponsors and Sandy Braun, Robert Harpe, and Larry Polk were our student council representatives. Many members of our class headed organizations this year. Larry Polk was president of the student council and the band; Betty Reed was editor of the Notlen-nac and president of G.A.A.; Stephen Hay was president of Hi-Y; Carol Baker was editor of the Hi-Life and president of the Kennel Klub; and Richard Sanders was president of the Thespian Club. Mary Ann Etienne served as varsity cheerleader. The basketball team, containing many senior boys won first place in the Pocket Athletic Conference. Twelve seniors were members of the high school band and participated in the marching and playing contests in which the band received first division ratings. Sandy Braun was crowned football queen and Mary Ann Etienne was crowned basketball queen. During our senior year we made money for the class by collecting dues, selling fire extinguishers, taffy, and stationery and by giving our Senior Play. The play was entitled "Huckleberry Finn" and ten seniors acted in it. On May 4 the Juniors entertained us at the Junior-Senior Prom. On May 16 we departed for St. Louis where we spent three days on our senior trip. We had a wonderful time there, seeing and doing many things. Carol Baker and Janis Evans were valedictorian and salutatorian of our class. We selected "Life Is What You Make It" as our class motto and the red rose as our flower. We wore blue caps and gowns. Our graduation date was May 24, and on that night the 41 students of the class of 1956 received our diplomas and completed our education at Cannelton High School.

Class Prophecy

May 24, 1971, proved to be a very unusual day in my life. I decided to go for a vacation, back to dear old Cannelton, Indiana. I left at dawn. After driving for awhile, I decided to stop at a small roadside cafe for a rest. A gas attendant ran out to serve me, and I suddenly recognized his face. "Charlie Maxey, is that you?" He said, "Carol, come in and see who's washing for me. I did, and there was Anna Jean Perry with soapsuds up to her elbows. We had quite a reunion that morning and Charlie told me that Lovell Carter was his chief competitor and had a large station right down the road. Next, I stopped in to see Lovell and he told me that Bill Johnson had been made tenth vice-president of the McNess Products Corporation and bought gas from him occasionally for his 1971 Cadillac. He also knew that Betty Jo (Elverd) Roberts was near by with her husband and was still a close friend of Patsy Milburn who was now a very successful dress designer. Around dusk I reached St. Louis, Missouri. I decided to spend the night at the Hotel Claridge where we had stayed on our senior trip. A very suave clerk came to the desk to receive me and after staring at him a full five minutes, I yelled, "Polky, what in the world are you doing here?" It was the same Larry Polk, just 15 years older. He had his most efficient bellhop take my bags and that turned out to be Gary Litherland. Larry invited me to go out with him that evening to see the surprise of my life. We went to the most exclusive night club in town and in enormous lights across the marquee were these words; "The St. Louis Woman=Nedre Gaynar." Larry had to catch me after that. I went backstage after the show to Nedra. I had a terrible time getting past her body-guard until we recognized each other. "Norman Lain!" I exclaimed. First Nedra told me that Janice Sue York was in Evansville operating a baby-sitting agency. She also told me about Janis Evans who was made head nurse at the Hoxsey Cancer Clinic in Texas and Marilyn Hafele who had married Ronnie, Nedra's brother, 14 years ago. She even showed me a card she had received a couple of years ago, from Athens, Greece, where Marvin Sturgeon had won the Olympic half-mile. There was also a note on the bottom from Hilbert Seibert, Marvin's manager. I made it to Evansville by dark and looked up Janice Sue. She took me over to Betty Jean (Mattingly) McDaniels' house that evening where I learned that Betty Jean was personal secretary and bookkeeper at the Hay Engineering Company Stephen and Denny Hay were partners and seemed to be doing a tremendous amount of business. Next we stopped at Lucretia's Exclusive Beauty Salon and there was Elaine Sutton. What a surprise that was! Janice Sue also told me that Shirley Sturgeon was doing commercial art work and Roscoe Schroeder was a contortionist in the "Greatest Show On Earth." The next morning I started on the last leg of my journey to Cannelton. I stopped on the way to see Barbara (McBrayer) Fulton who was living in Rockport and Richard Bolin who had returned to his beloved Troy to operate a general store. I also visited in Tell City where I saw Mary Ann (Etienne) Blandford. She was holding an important position in the bank which she had acquired after training at Lockyears's. When I reached Cannelton at noon, I went to Lyon's Cafe for lunch, but when I arrived at the location, I saw the Main Street Tavern. I went in and saw Lee Roy Rhodes and Wayne Garrett tending bar. I immediately recognized one of the customers--David Adams. He told me that he had a farm which covered half of Perry County. I inquired about the rest of my classmates who had lived in Rome and Tobinsport and found out that most of them were still there, but the population had increased tremendously. When I asked how that happened, Mousey shouted, "Jay Hall did it!" Yes, Jay Hall was the proud papa of 20 kids. I learned that Robert Chancellor was operating a Willys Jeep Agency. David also told me that Robert Harpe had become a forest ranger and he and his assistant, Francis Stowe, had developed many new types of trees. As I walked around the town, I noticed a huge sewing shop. I entered and there were three more of my old friends-Ruthie Hogue, Floretta Schraner, and Lillian Schellenburger. They told me they had used their Home Ec Training to start in business professionally. I asked about Betty and Dot Reed and wasn't too surprised to hear that they were co-mayors of Cannelton. I knew someone must have been responsible for the progress of the town. They also told me that Jimmy Gaynor had been in the army for 15 years and Richard Sanders as I expected was an admiral in the US Coast Guard. As I was leaving Floretta yelled out the door that Joyce Shore, was a Hostess on Eastern Airline. Well, I had located 40 of my classmates. Only Sandy Braun remained. At the courthouse I found a record of her marriage to a millionaire oil well owner from Oklahoma City. I made the trip home in record time. I entered the door tired but happy and said, "Jake, I believe I could write a book about the fate of the Class of '56!"
