Dedication

In appreciation of the faithful endeavor of our mothers and fathers to secure an excellent high school education for their children, the Senior Class dedicates its 1951 Annual to the parents of Tell City High School seniors. May we present to you our formal dedicatory?

We, the seniors of Tell City High, seeing our high school life in retrospect, pause to acknowledge a debt that we owe to our parents and the parents of all Tell City High students. By work and sacrifice, they have given us our opportunity of gaining an excellent high school education. We know that they are deeply interested in the studies and activities of their boys and girls. We hope that, in looking over this year-book, they will perhaps recapture some of the glamour of their own school days and at the same time gain a fuller understanding of the studies and recreations of Tell City High School. For this reason, and because we know that our family life and our school life are closely linked, we affectionately dedicate our 1951 Annual to the parents of this year's T.C.H.S. seniors.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. FECHTMAN

Our Superintendent, Mr. Fechtman, first saw light in Indianapolis in 1910. He spent his grade school days in Indianapolis. While going to school, he participated in basketball, baseball, and tennis.

After his high school days, he went to Indiana University. He received his B.S. Degree in 1937 and his M.S. in 1944.

Upon graduating from I.U., he spent eight years at Dunker, Corydon, and Greencastle, where he taught and coached. He was then promoted to principal in Park County and spent two years there. He then received a higher promotion by becoming Superintendent in Williamsport. We then had the excellent chance to get him to come to Tell City, which he did in 1949.

He thinks that the school in general is very cooperative.

Administration and Faculty

MR. LEE

This year sees the completion of Mr. Lee's twelfth year as principal of Tell City High School. He has, however, been on the faculty of our High School for thirty years.

He received his A.B. Degree at Central Normal College, and then completed a year of graduate work at Indiana University and earned his Master's Degree.

Among his duties as Principal are: student discipline, selection of appropriate convocation programs, administrative director of athletics, and keeping the school running smoothly and efficiently at all times.

We are proud to have Mr. Lee as our principal.

School Board

The Tell City School Board, which represents the people of the community, consists of three competent members. (Reading from left to right), Dr. Donald L. Lashley, Clarence Davis, and Frank Clemens. It functions as a policy-making body having complete jurisdiction over the schools of Tell City and their employees. It is through the superintendent that their executive policies and administrative details are made effective in the operation of the school system.

These men have and are giving much time and effort to our many school problems in order that we might enjoy the privilege of attending one of the ten best schools in Indiana.

We wish to take this opportunity to show our gratefulness to these men, and to thank them for the many things they have done for us.

JEAN WETZEL

Mrs. Jean Wetzel, secretary to Mr. Fechtman, is definitely an asset to our High School. She is very efficient, dependable, and industrious, and possesses a willingness to assist both teachers and students in solving their problems.

We, the seniors of 1951, wish to express our appreciation to her for all help and courtesies extended to us through our four years in Tell City High School.

Senior Class History

Let's turn our time clock back four years to Sept., 1947. We see 105 boys and girls, all different, entering Tell City High School for the first time. The next four years to be spent in school seemed a long time to us then, but to us, now, it has been the shortest years that we have spent. At first, like all freshmen classes, we had difficulties. The seniors eager to have some fun were trying to sell us Physical Education and Study Hall books, and admitting our ignorance, we were all eager to buy them. It took us some time to get accustomed to the new routine and pranks of the upper classmen, but finally we got down to work.

Early in the school year we had a meeting and began planning for the next four years that lay ahead of us. To guide us during our first year we chose Miss Wilson and Mr. Hollen as our sponsors. James Jordan was elected president, Jack Evrard was vice-president, and Jessie Jo Dauby was secretary-treasurer. After much discussion we decided on "Forever Onward" as our class motto and the American red rose as our flower. We worked hard that year, and at the end felt that we had made the first lap successfully. As school neared its close we were taken to Lincoln State Park by our sponsors on a picnic. An outing much enjoyed by all. School closed. Many found summer jobs, while others rested their wits for the coming year, and others finding jobs and not returning to school at all.

In September, 1948, eighty-one of us took up school life again with more confidence than the year before. This year we chose Miss Edwards and Mr. Sprinkle as our sponsors. Betty Stinnett was elected president, Charles Harpenau was vice-president, and Carolyn Boger was secretary-treasurer. With high ambitions for a trip in our senior year, we decided to pay dues to raise money for our class fund. Later that year we sponsored a basketball queen, selling votes, thus adding more money to our fund. It was the first queen chosen in the history of old T.C.H.S. Joyce Kramer was crowned queen and Penny George was her maid of honor. It was the same year that we ordered our class jackets, making sure to have them when we became upperclassmen.

The school year passed rapidly and during the closing days we again went to Lincoln State Park for our class picnic. Our Sophomore year came to an end, each going his way for vacation.

The fall of 1949 brought in 81 of the 105 starting in 1947.

They entered into the activities of the school with such unusual zest that their efforts have been crowned with a degree of success, rarely attained by any class. We were proud to be rated as upper classmen and did much to assist the new "freshies" just entering T.C.H.S. We organized our group by electing Gene Peter as our president, Bob Peter our vice-president, and Anthony Sablehause the secretary-treasurer and Mr. Jack Jines and Miss Nancy Ahlf as sponsors. We immediately laid plans for the Junior Amateur Hour and Junior Carnival which are annual affairs for this class, proceeds going to our class fund. Much hard work with the many school activities brought the school year rapidly to an end. The long waited for, the Junior-Senior Prom, had arrived. It was held at the Hoosier Heights Country Club with Jack Racine and his band furnishing the music. An old precedent was broken by allowing special guests who were not high school students to attend. The plan worked well, more coming and staying longer. For the third time we held the annual picnic at the Lincoln State Park. By this time we were quite familiar with this park, but each time having plenty of fun.

On September 6, 1950, seventy-four members of the class of '47 re-entered high school for their final year of work, thirty-one having dropped out during the three previous years. During this last year two new members were added—Charles Hubbs and Lillian Stephens. Three graduated at mid-term and were married. These were Maxine Miller, Donora Arnold, and Lillian Stephens. Gene Smith enlisted with Uncle Sam and Delores Pavey withdrew, seventy-two students in all graduating. Officers for the year were Gene Peter, president; Burke Scott, vice-president; and Ants Sabelhause, secretary-treasurer. To guide us through our last and most important year, we chose Miss Black and Mr. Thrasher as our class sponsors. We all thank them for the fine job that they have done throughout the year. It is an important job and takes much patience and time to do it well. Now that the year is over they can look back and feel proud of a job well done.

The year was a busy one. The most outstanding achievement was the publishing of the Sagittarius, another was the Curtis Publishing Magazine sale for which they received a plaque for outside achievement. Other events were the minstrel show, class night program, Junior-Senior Prom, a three-day tour to the Smoky Mountains, and capped by Baccalaureate Services on Sunday and Commencement on May 26, 1951. In parting we wish to thank our Superintendent, Mr. Fechtman; Principal, Mr. Lee; and faculty members for guiding us in this most important phase of our education and aiding us in our step toward success. Now to our underclassmen we wish to bring home one thing. Now is the time to study, not tomorrow.

After having some successes and some failures over a period of 25 years, we find the members of the Senior Class of 1941 located and engaged in the following:

Jerry Ayer, after 25 years has finally overcome his bashfulness. He has a harem of 50 beautiful women.

Wanda Berger and husband, Ronnie Lamar, now have their own car company.

Alfred Batie is now manager of the new, modern Needmore A. & P. Store. It has electric lights, too.

Bill Dauby is now the proud owner of the Dauby Farm and Implement Store. He sells atomic driven plows.

Marilyn Estes is Society reporter on the New York Times.

Theresa Etensohn is a Tobacco Auctioneer in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky.

Bob Elder, after many years of hard labor is now the sole owner of the Coca-Cola plant, on Alcatraz Island.

Mary Ford is now Mrs. J. B. Rust, and now have their own theater, known as the "Rustic."

Neil Farley is producer of the 1976 hit, the Farley Girls, featuring 200 of the most beautiful legs on Broadway.

Pat Goble is now Manager of the All-Star Girls Baseball Team.

Charlie Harpenau is still driving out highway 37 in his old '40 Crevy, taking T. C. H. S. students, better known as the "Hockey Club," to Leopold to play basketball.

Calvin Hartz is still going steady with Carolyn Hess after 25 years. Come on Carolyn, break down and ask him.

Cyril Hauser is now owner of a large dude ranch out West, known as the Three Circles.

Joyce Kramer is now playing in the radio hit, "My Friend Irma," and just like Irma, Joyce is still trying to find a man.

Jim Labhart is the sole owner and manager of the expanding William Tell Hotel. Robert Lawrence has just made his first million off his drawing, "The Thing." Allen Lechner is head basketball coach at Snodgrass, Ky. He has his own team now, thanks to Marian.

Jerry Lemler has just returned from Paris where he studied hair styling. He has just created the famous "Lemo" wave.

Joe Ludwig, the great guitarist, is the crooner of the hillbilly world.

Mary K. Ludwig and Anthony Sabelhause have now fulfilled their dreams, ten little Sabelhauses. (You have ten, wanta try for twenty?)

Jim Miller is finally (gasp) married to Faith Evrard.

Mary Evelyn Park is now in Washington, D. C. to attend a Military Ball, with Edward Ward.

Bob Peter still makes skids for Hagedorns.

Gene G. Peters has taken his father's place at the First Evangelical and Reformed Church of Tell City.

Gene Peter has just been elected President of the United States for a fifth term. Gene controlled all the women voters with his good looks.

Iris Reed has her own dancing studio, better known as "Hoppy's Dancing Salone," with Chris Heck as her chief instructor.

Norman Ress has finally fulfilled his ambition to become a doctor. Norman is now practicing medicine at Woodmere.

Jane Schaefer and Eddie Paulin have their own Drug Store, near Lamar.

Eddie Seibert, prosperous T. C. business man, has just added two more grocery stores to his nation-wide chain.

Sue Spencer is school teacher in the same University where Jim Jordan is coaching. Why don't you two get together and have little school teachers?

N. C. Sprinkle is now Secretary of Agriculture in President Peter's cabinet.

Lillian Stephens, better known as Mrs. Lillian Graybill is now the mother of twelve little Graybills. Not bad for a start.

Clarence Taylor is following in his brother's footsteps, and has now joined the U. S. Navy.

Jerry Taylor is now happily married and has 10 little farmers.

Freddie Van Hoosier has opened a school for anyone wishing to learn to play the harmonica.

Victor Weil is the Treasury Department's chief bookkeeper.

Estel Wilgus is still sleeping in Mr. Peter's Physics class. He forgot to wake up.

John Wood has just built another wing on his bachelor's shack, so as to accommodate the overflow of children.

Charlie Hubbs is now the owner of the Ohio Theater of Tell City.

Juniors

The jolly junior class, composed of ninety-three members, has been very active in school activities for the year. This ambitious class chose as their officers for the year very competent and dependable students. These officers were Jerry Allen Powers, president; Mary Frances "Tootie" Frieler, vice-president; Ed Kreager, secretary; and Larry Alvey, Earl Malone, and Mary Alice Lauer, student council members. The sponsors are Mr. Robert Kreager and Mrs. Carol Dolezel.

The class sponsored a Sadie Hawkins Dance on October 13 with very much success. The Junior Carnival, which was held on November 3, was a great show, with such attractions as the variety show, fortune tellers, leg guessing contest, and featured the teachers in humble roles at the shoe shine stand and in the sponge throwing contest. All in all, the carnival was a great success. The annual Amateur Hour was held. A movie, "The Man in the Iron Mask," was given on November 21. The Junior-Senior Prom was held on April 28.

The class already had their jackets from their sophomore year, but they received their rings on December 1. These rings are very beautiful and will be a lasting reminder of the good old days at Tell City High.

Sophomores

The school year of 1950-'51 brought forth seventy-eight sophomores, who are now full fledged high school students. This class is the smallest in school this year. To head the class, Joe Hall was chosen president; Jim "Lefty" Howe and Sandy Heitkemper were elected to serve as vice-president and secretary, respectively; and Rita Peter, Jim Ludwig, and Bud George were elected as representatives of the class to the student council.

The sophomores received their jackets of the traditional red trimmed in white. Rings will be ordered next year. Dues were collected in order to have money for the class picnic held in the spring.

Freshmen

On September 5, 1950, the green wave, 105 Freshmen, came pouring through the halls of old T.C.H.S. They were trying to find their classrooms. At a meeting during the second week of school they elected as officers: Ronnie Lautner, president; James Stephens, vice-president; Paul Mills, secretary; and Jerry Hoesli and Marcella Tanner, members of the student council. Miss Thelma Terry and Mr. Duane Dolezel were chosen as sponsors to guide the class through the '50-'51 school year. The class sponsored all home freshmen basketball games. On November 21, they had a "sock hop" as a class party but cordially invited all other students in school to attend. Class dues were collected to supplement class funds.

FIRST ROW: Joyce Ann Connor, Imogene Leimgruber, Bruce Lynn Paulin, Barbara Gratzer, Constance Brown, Ralph Litherland, Betty Kuster, Russell Suihart, Gary Poehlein. SECOND ROW: Robert Etensohn, Agnes Sifrig, Martha Dauby, Walter Baysinger, Marcella, Toby Stowe, Ronald Yaggi, Rose Marie Sabelhaus, Joanne Roeser. THIRD ROW: Dorothy Stephens, David Dooley, Betty Goffinet, Nelda Crawford, Joseph Neyenhaus, Paul Mills, Bob Harpenau, Joe Buchaman, Pearlless Johnson. FOURTH

Freshman Class History

On September 5, 1950, the green wave, 105 Freshmen, swept into the halls of old T.C.H.S. Lost, as they usually are, they had quite a struggle in finding their way around.

After they had settled down, a class meeting was called by Mr. Lee and with his help they chose the class officers and sponsors. The sponsors were Miss Terry and Mr. Duane Dolezel. The president was Ronnie Lautner; vice-president was Jim Stephens, and the secretary-treasurer was Paul Mills. To represent them on the student council they chose Marcella Tanner and Jerry Hoesli.

These new students have gone throughout the year, accepting abuse and ridicule from the upper classes with humble attitudes. They did not plan many activities but their Sock Hop and class picnic made a big hit with everyone and at the end of the year all trivial problems were forgotten.

ACTIVITIES

Vocational Guidance

Mr. Thrasher, as head of the guidance department of this school, has given us some very important, as well as interesting, material to relay to you. This should be considered by all high school students because it may influence you to train for a substantial career. The Senior questionnaires are to be given to all Seniors. Interests tests will be given to Freshmen so they can base their studies while they are here. The guidance room, open to all, contains many college bulletins which will help students who plan to go to college. There are information booklets on 220 different occupations which surely will cover your field.

Student Council

Every year outstanding students are selected to represent their classes on the student council. These students help to solve problems arising between students and faculty. These problems are discussed by the council and satisfactory decisions to both are usually made.

The student council also sponsors such activities as dances and drives for poor relief.

Jim Jordan, a senior, was chosen president this year and Mr. Lee was selected as sponsor by the group.

Marksman Staff

Representing the Marksman staff this year are Alfred Batie, David Hessig, Daniel Hessig, Robert Lawrence, Norman Holpp, Jerry Ayer, Marilyn Estes, Raymond Schauburger, William Thomas, John Wood, Norman Ress and Lillian Stephens. The staff has no specific order in relation to ratings this year because of a new interchanging systems. This overlapping of responsibilities given all members experienced in the numerous jobs of turning out a school paper. Miss Ahlf is the general overseer and supervisor.

This year the Marksman staff has put out eight issues as well as sponsoring contests and other activities.

The Marksmen was under the management of two returning members of last year's class for the first half of the year. They were John Wood, Editor; and Norman Ress, Assistant Editor.

Bookstore

One of the many duties of Mr. Cassidy is the running of the bookstore. This job requires much extra work and we are fortunate to have such a man as Mr. Cassidy in charge. He must check the enrollment of all classes against the number of textbooks on hand, and find out just how many to order. The bookstore also handles much typing paper, drawing paper, pads, etc. He is eager to help the students operate the mimeograph and ditto machines which are kept in the bookstore.

Mr. Cassidy is the Commercial teacher in TCHS and teaches classes in shorthand, typing, and business training.

Office Girls

Every year several girls are chosen to work in Mr. Lee's office. They do odd jobs such as placing grades on cards, keeping permanent records in order, checking absences, and other work that are necessary in operating the office.

They are a great help to Mr. Lee and at the same time are receiving office experience which will be valuable to them after graduation.

Librarians

Tell City High School Library has about 2400 volumes of fiction, non-fiction and reference books for use by our students. Caring for these books, checking them out to students, etc. is the task assumed by these girls, shown standing behind the charging desk. One girl is on duty each period of the day. They are, left to right: Marilyn Estes, Donna Birchler, Margaret Miles, Peggy Reckelhoff. Maxine Mueller and June Beard were absent the day the picture was taken. We have added 600 new volumes of fiction this year plus a new set of World Book Encyclopedia.

Sagittarius Staff

Much time and effort has been spent in preparing this fourth edition of the Sagittarius for 1951. It is a pleasure to present this record of our four happy years in T.C.H.S.

The heads of committees on this year's Annual Staff were, as shown on picture, Seated: Miss Calla Black, Sponsor; Betty Hudson, Associate-Editor; Carolyn Boger, Sales Manager; Sue Spencer, Senior Data Chairman. Standing: Gene Peter, Advertising; Norman Eddie Ress, Pictures; Jack Evvard, Faculty; Mr. Hugh Thrasher, Sponsor; Velda Knepper, Editor; John Wood, Associate-Editor; and Jim Jordan, Underclassmen. This year, for the first time, a few Juniors were appointed on the various committees to work along with the Seniors, and thus gained valuable experience for next year.

It would be impossible to name everyone who gave their time and effort to publishing this Annual, but we wish to thank them at this time, for without their assistance, this book could not have been completed.

SCHOOL WORK

One of the most interesting courses for the boys is the woodworking department. After completing a year each of Industrial Arts and mechanical drawing he may enter this class.

Each boy upon entering this class is assigned a bench and tools. After a short period of training, he is allowed to use the machines in the department. These include a joiner, jigsaw, wood lathe, rib saw, and crosscut saw.

After the class has become accustomed to their tools and machinery they begin work on their individual projects. Some of the most popular projects are cedar chests, a chest of drawers, and desks.

This department is under the able direction of Mr. Mosbey. He is very patient and always finds time to help each student in all their difficulties no matter how trivial they may be.

Woodworking Class

Home Ec. Managers

se girls were chosen to assist Miss Royal in Home Economics Department, because of outstanding ability. Each class had one or managers over it, who supervised it in various activities. They demonstrated many projects and helped the students with their various problems. They have done a splendid job.

Drivers Training

The objectives of this course is four fold:

1. To bring about in the minds of boys and girls a realization of the effects of physical, mental and emotional characteristics on drivers and pedestrians in general; a recognition of their own deficiencies which may affect their traffic practices, and a knowledge of the steps that they can take to remedy or compensate for such deficiencies.
2. To establish in the minds of the boys and girls an understanding of those sound principles and practices fundamental to safety and efficiency in traffic,—whether as driver or pedestrian.
3. To provide for the establishment of such habits and the perfecting of such skills as will assure for the boy or girl. Sound and safe performance as driver or pedestrian.
4. To develop among high school youth the attitudes, appreciations and understandings essential to the safe, sane, cooperative sportmanlike use of our streets and highways; the sincere acceptance of individual and group responsibility for the conservaton of health and life in traffic; and the further development and improvement of traffic conditions through programs of legislature, administration, engineering, enforcement, education and personal training.

Dramatics Class Play

On November 15, 1950, the Dramatics Class of Tell City High School presented a two-act comedy entitled "Off a Pewter Platter," by Robert and Lillian Masters. This play was the story of the Dorn family. Uranea Dorn gaily contaminated her household with contestitis. The disease spread from perky old Grandpa to the maid, Aggie. Toots brought her imaginary playmate, invisible Junior Salad, out in the open, but Debbie brought her imaginary family, as she wished them to be, out in a dream. Davy was accused of absconding with school basketball funds. Events finally turned the near tragedy back to a happy comedy.

Urania Dorn was played by Maxine Mueller, her husband, George Dorn by Velda Knepper, and Grandpa by James Jordan. Aunt Isabel was played by Sue Spencer; Toots, the youngest of the family, by Betty Sue Hanloh; and Buddy by Gene Ress. The part of Aggie, the maid, was played by Iris Reed. Mary Lou Hoffman and Don Page played the parts of Debbie and Davy, the unidentical twins. Stephen Ranes, the basketball captain, was played by Charles Schrieber and Principal Whittaker by N. C. Sprinkle. Theresa Ettensohn, Margie Huthsteiner, and Jane Schaefer played the parts of the P.-T.A. Ladies Auxiliary. The four sorority girls were played by Mary Ford, Mary Hilgenhold, Dolores Pavey, and Martha Poehlein.

The play was directed by Mr. Robert Kreager who selected two production assistants, Deborah Hinton and Jessie Jo Dauby. Publicity was placed in the hands of Don Page. Technical Assistants were Jervis Kast and Ronald Birchler. Delores Pavey furnished the music needed during the play and Margie Huthsteiner was in charge of the props. Sound effects were managed by Mary Hilgenhold, Delores Pavey, and Jane Schaefer. The make-up committee consisted of Mary Hilgenhold, Jessie Jo Dauby and Theresa Ettensohn. Charles Schrieber was in charge of the programs.

Future Business Leaders of America

The F.B.L.A. was organized by its sponsor, Mr. Cassidy, as an organization with high aims and ideals which would help the commercial students after graduation. Among these aims were ones such as to develop competent and aggressive leadership, to create more understanding and interest in choosing business occupations, to strengthen the confidence of these young men and women in themselves and their work, to encourage members in the development of individual projects and establishing themselves in business, to develop character, train for useful citizenship, and foster patriotism, to encourage improvement in scholarship and promote school loyalty, and to encourage and practice thrift.

To devise some means of showing these aims in everyday life the club had a group of projects lined up for observation and discussion. These projects included visiting speakers from factories and business concerns in town, field trips to some of the factories and offices in town, club discussions on various subjects, and miscellaneous projects as the opportunity presents itself.

The club chose as its officers to guide them through the school year of 1950-51, four competent, consistent senior girls. They were: Sue Spencer, President; Betty Stinnett, Vice-President; Jessie Jo Dauby, Secretary; and Jane Schaefer, Treasurer.

Physics

Physics is a study of five parts. These parts are: mechanics, heat, sound, electricity and light.

The class is composed of nineteen senior boys and is conducted by Mr. Peter.

The work for the class is conducted both in the classroom and in the laboratory. During each unit the class spends at least one day conducting the experiments.

One purpose of taking physics is to provide an understanding of the principles of physics necessary to cope with the present mechanical environment. Another is to help young people lay a foundation for successful careers in the field of science. A third purpose is to stimulate critical thinking as a basis for intelligent action in a democracy.

Typing

Pictured above is one of several beginning typing classes in T.C.H.S. In this subject, great emphasis is put on learning the keyboard by "touch" and not by "sight." After the class has mastered the keyboard they begin working to improve their speed.

These classes are under the direction of three teachers. They are Mrs. Dolezal, Mr. Cassidy, and Mr. Dolezal. Mrs. Dolezal also handles the advanced typing class. The chief object of this class is to learn to improve their speed, office procedure, letter forms and graphs. They also learn how to operate different types of office machinery.

Projection Crew

Through the efforts of the two young men in the photo, the students of T.C.H.S. have enjoyed the finest in movie entertainment at several convocation programs in the past.

Floyd J. Ferrell Jr. who is a Junior has completed 3 years at the movie machine and is the Projectionist at the Swiss Theatre (35MM).

Neil Farley is a Senior and has just completed his first year at the 16 MM machine. Neil is an usher at the Ohio Theatre.

There is no doubt that both young men sure love the movies.

The Kiwanis, The Salvation Army and other civic organizations have enlisted the aid of these young men through Mr. Fechtman, and have found them ready, willing and able with their services.

These fellows have certainly been an asset to the schools in the movie entertainment field.

Ushers

It was decided by higher authority this year to have reserved seats for season ticket holders and in order to reserve these seats for the rightful occupants ushers were necessary.

The boys appointed by Mr. Lee to serve as ushers this year consisted of four Seniors, Robert Cassidy, Robert Peter, Joe Nichols, and Freddie Van Hoosier, and two Juniors, Everett Huck and Edward Kreager. These boys did a mighty fine job.

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization of many members throughout Indiana high schools. It offers opportunities for extra participation in active sports for those girls who especially like to play. The Tell City G.A.A. is active in various ways. Intra-mural tournaments in softball and basketball are organized. The "G.A. A.'s" own a popcorn machine and operate the concession stands at athletic events; they also decorate the building at Christmas time. For these and other activities they earn points toward awards, such as sweaters and pins.

Funds derived from the concession stands are spent for awards and yearly projects. The 1949-50 project was a contribution towards purchasing new velvet curtains for the auditorium. The 50-51 project is to buy new athletic equipment to be used in gym classes.

Officers of this year are: President, Mary Ford; Vice-President, Marcella Tanner; Secretary, Barbara Zoll; Treasurer, Lois Eger; Sports Leaders, Dorothy Stephens and Thelma Ford. Miss Terry is their sponsor.

Girls' Physical Education Classes

High School requirements include one credit in physical education, which is earned in two years work. A variety of sports equipment is available, enabling each student to participate in at least one favorite activity. Activities include basketball, volleyball, softball, tumbling, archery and other sports. Beginners in tumbling are receiving instructions on the head stand in the photograph.

Tell City Football Queen Of 1950

Overcast weather and a muddy field failed to dim the excitement as Sue Spencer was crowned Football Queen for the 1950 season.

Sue, a 5'4" senior, was elected by the student body on the morning before the game. Her attendants were Jesse Jo Dauby, Penny George, Tootie Freiler and Margaret Miles.

She was escorted to her throne by "Shep" Peters and Jackie Evrard, co-captains of Tell City's Football Team. Her attendants were forced to make their way to the unattended and several times lost their way and seemed to be walking knee-deep in mud and water.

The climax of the ceremony was reached when Evrard and Peters each deposited a mighty "smack" upon the lips of the queen amid the hoots of the entire football squad.

As usual the T.C.H.S. Band came through with a superb performance to add color to the ceremony.

Basketball Queen

On Friday night, January 19, at the Corydon-Tell City Basketball Game, the annual Tell City High School Basketball Queen was crowned.

There were twelve candidates selected by the twelve Varsity Basketball players, and the student body voted at a convocation held the activity period on the day of the game.

Allen Lechner selected Marion Young

Burke Scott selected Jesse Dauby

Jack Evrard selected Margaret Miles

Gene Peter selected Sue Spencer

Charles Schreiber selected Mary Frieler

Ronald Birchler selected Sue Hubbs

Calvin Hartz selected Carolyn Hess

Robert George selected Catherine Smith

James Miller selected Faith Evrard

Jerry Powers selector Carolyn Boger

James Jordan selected Sharron Olberding, who was chosen by the student body to be Maid of Honor.

Duane Hammock selected Sue Sprinkle, who was chosen by the students to reign as Basketball Queen for the 1950-51 season.

'Bearhug' Jordan is depositing a mighty smack upon the lips of Sharon Olberding while Duane Hammock looks on.

Band Student Council

The following students were elected as officers and council members of the T.C.H.S. Band for the years '50 and '51.

Carolyn Boger was elected Band Captain, with Sue Spencer serving as Treasurer. The Band Council is made up of a member of each class in the Band, including the Captain and Treasurer.

The Band

The band attended the Indiana Band Day celebration held at Indiana University, and then proceeded to work on its annual Christmas Concert. Following the Christmas Concert, several students began working on solos and ensembles to enter in the solo-ensemble contest held at Evansville College. The band presented its second concert of the school year in February. In connection with this concert, the Tell City All-Grade School Band presented a half-hour program that was well received. The final concert of the year was given in May and labeled as the Spring Concert. The band entered the District Band Contest, but results were not available when this Annual went to press.

The band officers for the 1950-51 school year were:

Carolyn Boger, Captain	Paul Etienne, Junior Council
Sue Spencer, Treasurer	Rita Peter, Sophomore Council
Jesse Jo Dauby, Senior Council	Larry Krieg, Freshman Council

Velda Knepper served his second year as student conductor and ably directed the Pep Band at all home basketball games, as well as assisting Mr. Silke in rehearsals. Paul Etienne was assistant conductor and is expected to replace Velda next year.

Chicagoland Music Festival

Our T. C. Marksman Band of 1950 had started a good record by placing first division in both marching and playing at the District Contest. The band's capable director, Mr. Paul W. Silkie, then gave the band his word that if and when they placed first in both marching and playing at the State Contest, he would enter them in the Chicagoland Music Festival. This made all students, in their own minds, work diligently, for they knew such an opportunity would be the highlight of their school days.

The Band, as always, came through with flying colors at the State Contest, and they were on their way. All arrangements were made, such as chartering busses, making reservations, etc.

On August 17, at 7:30 A.M., they were on the road traveling in three brand new Greyhound busses, with finely painted signs labeling the Marksman Band. Outside of a few upset stomachs and some being fatigued, everyone enjoyed the trip very much. Tell City's Highsteppers arrived in Chicago at the Stevens Hotel at approximately 8:00 P.M.

After registering and finding their rooms, everyone relaxed, but not for long because there was so much to see that they couldn't be still.

Once the chaperons hastened the band to breakfast in the high-class coffee shop, we started work. Afterwards came practice. The next few days were filled with thrills for each and every one.

We experienced such things as playing in the Palmer House Hotel, seeing Alec Templeton, being present in the midst of over seventy thousand people in Soldiers' Field, hearing fifty organs and eighteen harps harmonizing in the open, seeing such noted places as art museums, science museums, going on sight-seeing tours, taking a tour on Lake Michigan, seeing an ice show in the Stevens Boulevard Room, and seeing Evelyn Knight and Billy Eckstine.

Some students enjoyed the Chicago Fair a mite too much; for example, ask Alfred Batie why he isn't in the picture on this page.

From all information we have, it is proven that the Marksman Band outside of all-night parties and the such, came back very happy and thrilled.

Our band deserves a lot of recognition, so in years to come let's get behind and push them.

Magazine Sales

On October 10, the Senior Class launched their annual magazine sales contest. The class was divided into two equal sides and were given the names Army and Navy. The captains of the winning Navy team were Jessie Dauby and Gene Peter, under the sponsorship of Miss Black. The captains of the losing Army team were Betty Hudson and Jim Labhart, under the sponsorship of Mr. Thrasher.

The entire city was canvassed, and when the closing date of October 25 was reached, the total sales amounted to just short of thirteen hundred dollars. This was three hundred dollars over the established quota of one thousand dollars, and set a new record for the contest.

For this accomplishment the class received a plaque from Mr. Taylor who represented the Curtiss Publishing Co. in this district. The total of 374 subscriptions netted the class $389.89, after all prizes were taken out.

A program dedicated to American Education Week, was presented by the government classes, under the supervision of Miss Black and Mr. Sprinkle. The program was made up of four parts, "Drawing up the Constitution," "The Living Constitution," "The Responsibilities of a Citizen," and "The Home, School, and Community Teamwork." Forty-three pupils participated in this worth-while program.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Something new has been added. This is the first time in the history of T.C.H.S. that six boys have led the cheers. There are two Seniors, three Juniors, and one Freshman in the group. Clarence Fox and Anthony Sabelhaus are the Seniors; Joe Paulin, Paul Etienne, and Earl Malone are the Juniors; and last but surely not least, Maurice Dauby is the Freshman. The Student Body elected Maurice in his first year of high school and we all think we made a good choice.

This year the boys have gone all out to get something new. They revived some of the old yells and originated some new ones. They went to Bloomington to a Cheerleader's Conference last fall and brought back some very fine ideas. They had some very good comedy yells the past season, and a few yells involving flips.

Before each game, they had a pep session to encourage louder yelling from the student body and urge the team on to victory. Also at these pep sessions they put on a few stunts with the help of some of the students. Each time they had a good speaker to say a few words to the student body.

The Freshmen also had some very fine cheerleaders. They worked very hard to provide a strong cheering section.

Freshman Cheerleaders

Reserves

The record of this year's reserve basketball team was eleven wins and five losses. You might call these boys "homers" because they lost only one game at our high school gym.

Although the record may not be too impressive, all in all these boys are fine prospects for our future varsity teams, because five of them are Sophomores and six of them are only Freshmen. They got a lot of valuable experience this year, and they usually put on red-hot preliminary exhibitions. High point honors for the year went to Jim Howe, who was closely followed by Joe Spencer. The Junior Marksmen were coached by Mr. Jines.

SECOND ROW: Joe Spencer, Jim Howe, Bill Kuster, Larry Krieg.

Frosh Team

This year's freshman team represents the cream of an exceptional group of basketball players. Out of this freshman class (graduating class of 1954) thirty boys came out for basketball practice on the opening day of the season. The twelve boys pictured above are the letter winners out of the group of thirty prospects.

The squad's record was good. They lost only two ball games while winning eight, and they won most of their games by a comfortable margin. In the third annual P.A.C. Frosh Tourney, they were barely eliminated by a fine Mt. Vernon team, who won the tourney. Mr. Jines was their coach.

Football Season & Team

Coach August Lambert, fresh from the campus of Indiana State Teachers College, took over the leadership of the football squad upon the resignation of Ivan Hollen and proceeded to have one of the greatest teams in Tell City's history.

Featuring a varied offense around the running of veterans Jack Evrard, Bob Freeman, Jim Miller, Joe Spencer, and the passing of Sophomore Bud George, the Marksmen racked up 329 points for an average of over 36 a game. Backing up this great offense was one of the outstanding lines in the P.A.C. Led by veterans Bob Peter and Gene Smith, they produced an almost impenetrable defense.

The Marksmen lost but one game, that being an early season defeat by the Conference Champs, Petersburg. The results, 20-16.

Despite the loss of nine Seniors, including 6 starters, the Marksmen should again be one of the conference powers.

Football Seniors

Nine Seniors performed on this year's football squad. They were: Bob Peter, two-year letterman at guard; Clarence Taylor, two-year letterman at guard; Gene Smith, three-year letterman at center; Jack Evrard, four-year letterman at halfback; Jimm Miller, two-year letterman at fullback; Bob Elder, two-year letterman at end; Gene Peter and Burke Scott, both lettermen at end; and Calvin Hartz, a two-year letterman at end.

Several of these boys won recognition on the P.A.C. teams during their playing careers. They will be missed when the next football season comes around.

Baseball Team

The High School Baseball Team has a very successful year in competition with the four Evansville schools and the other teams of the Pocket Athletic Conference. Seven veterans are included in this year's team from the 1950 squad, including four pitchers and one catcher.

Track Squad

For the first time in the history of Tell City High School, the track team will be at home on their own track. Through the cooperation of the city administration, a track, one-fifth of a mile in length, was completed this spring and several meets were held at Tell City. The sport has picked up much interest in its two preceding years and much greater interest was manifested due to the ability to schedule home meets. The 1951 squad is shown with its Coach, Hugh Thrasher.
