ACTIVITIES

Student Council
Sponsors Numerous
Activities

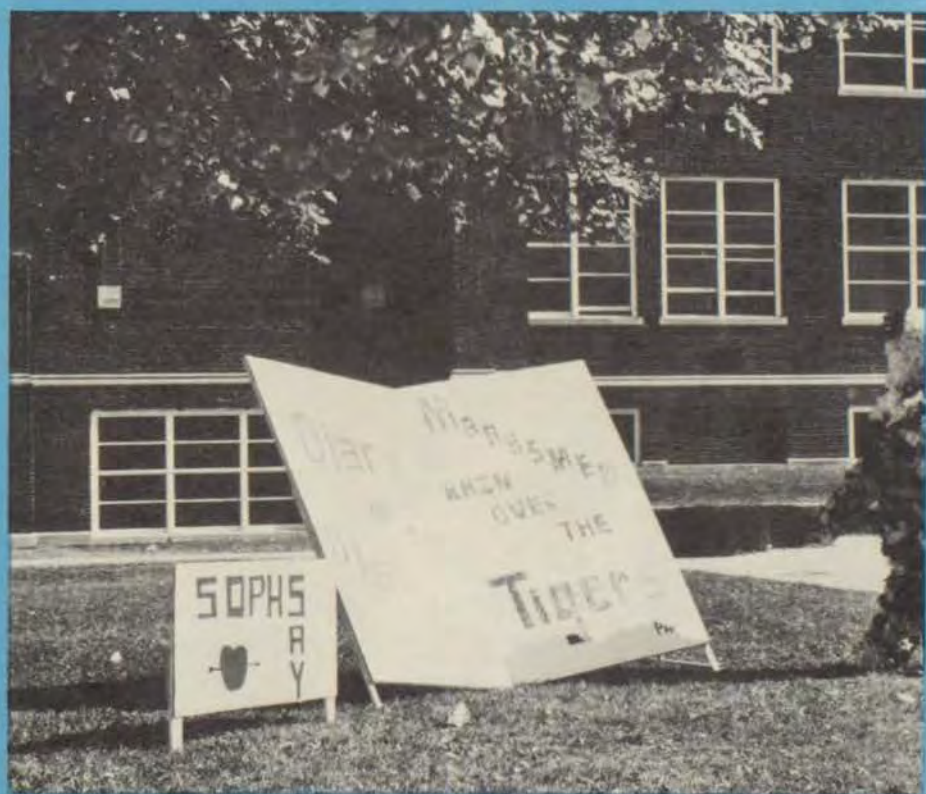

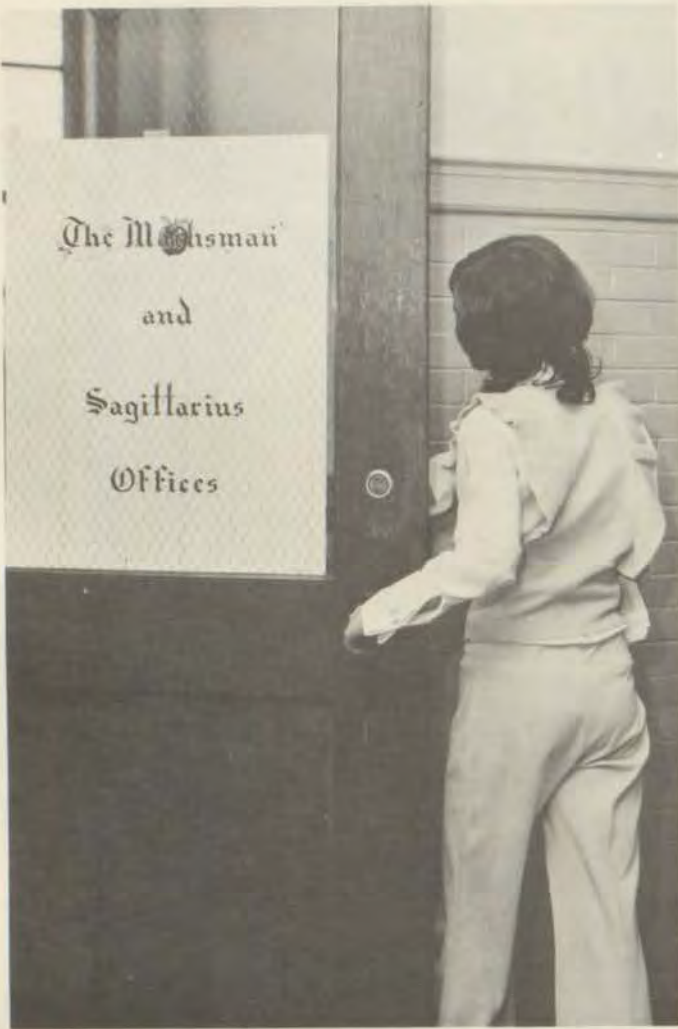

The Student Council for 72-73 again sponsored various convocations for advanced learning, blending academics with entertainment. A physical education program explaining the game of spaceball, and a program including a spokesman from NASA, gave students a needed break from the grind of school work.

Annual activities, such as the crowning of football and basketball homecoming queens, along with football and basketball parents recognition night, brought more life to the half time activities. The Council again sponsored the used book program that made getting books for the fall much easier.

The officers for the Student Council were Barbara Nelson, treasurer; Lisa Taylor, secretary; Cathy Connor, president; and Jeff Lawalin, vice-president.

Journalism Class, Hectic and Exciting

The 1972-73 journalism staff, hampered with just one class of only 19 students continued with the production of the "Marksman" and "Sagittarius"

At the right are "Marksman" editors Randy Arnold, George Reed, Michele Arnold and Dave Bosley.

The Journalism Department brought home two first place awards from the University of Evansville Journalism Day. Awards received were for the best editorial written by Louise Cole and the best news story by Dennis Cole and Cindy Ayer. This was a first for Tell City High.

Thanks to the efforts of Louise Cole, the "Helicon" has continued its publication this year. "Helicon" is a medium by which students have an opportunity to display their creativity in writing. There were two publications this year.

The Marching Win State

Marksmen Contest

The Tell City High School Marching Marksmen, again completed another year of first place competition.

Mr. James Ashby and Mr. Henry Wolfe, in their first year at Tell City, kept the band in winning form, a long standing tradition.

The band swept the state competition in Salem, Indiana, to capture the Grand Champion trophy. They also placed second in the field and street judging. Many firsts were taken by the musicians at the state solo contest.

The band marched at football games, participated in parades, and gave concerts while the pep band performed at home basketball games.

GERMAN CLUB OFFICERS: Anne Coultas, Chris Ramsey, Mrs. Betty Kramer, and Trudy Lehman.

SPANISH CLUB OFFICERS: Gail DuPre, George Reed, Dave Faulkenberg, Steve Gudorf and Debbie Evans.

The Language Department was expanded this year with the addition of German to the curriculum.

The newly formed German Club became a part of the language club program which already included the French and Spanish clubs.

A new concept of travel for the clubs brought varied money making projects. Club members sold light bulbs and suckers, raffled a television and checked coats at ball games to earn money for foreign travel.

After hours of work, the members realized their goals. During Easter vacation French students toured Montreal Canada for four days while twenty-two Spanish students visited Mexico City for six days. The German students made plans for travel at a later date.

These travels, the first of their kind at TCHS, helped the students better learn the language and customs of the countries.

"Harvey" hops to Success

“Nights
In White
Satin”

The colors gold and white helped to set the mood for the 1973 Junior-Senior Prom. The walls, covered with a white background and gold stars, carried out the theme "Nights in White Satin" while flaming torches lit the way into the National Guard Armory.

In one corner, pictures could be taken in a large, white summerhouse decorated with pink and red roses, and surrounded by hedges. White crepe paper with more gold stars was strung across the dance floor with rose mobiles hanging from the middle. The romantic atmosphere was enlivened by Family Portrait, a nine piece band from Murray State University.

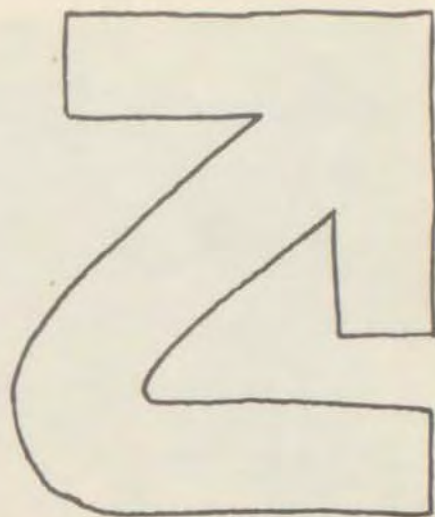

Senior Robin Goffinet was crowned Prom Queen by her escort Charlie Heckel. Her court included Cathy Connor and escort Rick Staples, Teri Davis and escort Chris Kleeman, Lavonne Flaherty and escort Tim Miller.

Junior attendants were Ronda Henson escorted by Kent Smith, Fonda Henson and escort Barry Stiles, and Diane Taylor escorted by Paul Werner.

The Tell City Marksmen finished their season with a 7-3 record and claimed another SIAC Championship. Although the record might not reveal it, the Marksmen had a tremendous season. The schedule was certainly one of, if not the most difficult ever played at Tell City, according to head coach Joe Talley. One good reason for the season being difficult was the addition of Jeffersonville to the schedule.

Although the Marksmen were defeated by Vincennes, Jeffersonville, and Providence, their potent offense was able to score in every game. The backbone of the offense was built around Pat "Iron Man" Malone who scored 22 touchdowns and also wide receiver Dan Talley who caught 37 passes for seven touchdowns.

The Marksmen had six players who made all-conference. They were Wayne Marchand, Danny Talley, Tim Cail, Randy Arnold and Dennis McGee. Pat Malone received All-State honors from both the AP and UPI coaches poll.

Matmen Record 6-4 Season

Referee Larry Lyons gets ready to signal points for the take down as the wrestlers work their way to the mat.

A Marksman grappler finds himself in a tight spot as he is about to be pinned. The referee keeps close watch on the action.

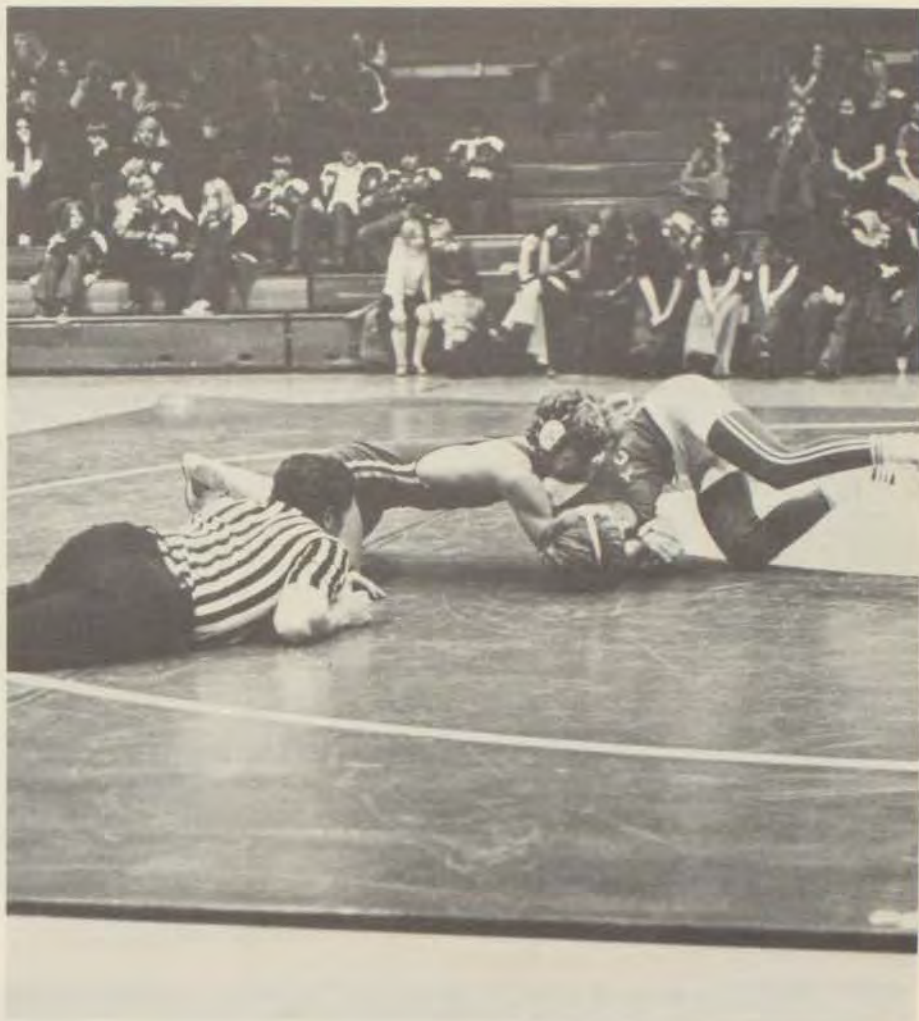

Tell City Wrestlers finished the 1972-73 season with a 6-4 record and placed seventh out of 17 in the SIAC match.

Two wrestlers, Wayne Marchand and Jerry Hagedorn qualified for the regional. Marchand went on to place second in the regional and Coach Pride had this to say about him.

"Wayne had an exceptional year, because with no previous varsity experience he finished 21-2. He had championships in the SIAC and sectional plus a first place finish in the Invitational meet. He was our first SIAC champ and I'm proud of him. He is a competitor."

Coach Byrd called this team the "best ever" for the grapplers.

With 33 of the 36 wrestlers returning 1974 looks better than '73 which was supposed to be a rebuilding year.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Juniors

The class of 1974 came one giant step closer to graduation and had an exciting year in the process.

A clever lawn display featuring a 7 Up can and the slogan "Marksmen are Number Un" gained first prize for the juniors. They also earned more than $1500 for the Junior-Senior Prom by selling magazines. Jane Luttrell was the high salesman with a total of $113.

Caryn Schrieber was elected junior queen attendant for football homecoming while Rosa Hagedorn was chosen basketball attendant.

Class officers for the sophomores included Aaron VanWinkle, secretary; Joanie Rierson, treasurer; and Tim Malone, president. The class chose Mr. Ben Varner and Mr. Earl Miller as their class sponsors.

The class took third place in the annual class lawn display contest. Constructed of ceiling board and wood frame, the display depicted a Marksman "raining" over a Tiger.

Cathy Hagedorn was selected the class attendant for football with Angela Mills being chosen the basketball attendant.

Sophomore class jackets finally arrived on December 14 after the students had eagerly waited since October 5.

On April 16, the class members ordered their rings which were scheduled to arrive in October.

Freshmen

The class of 1976 over 250 strong entered TCHS for the first time in September of 1972.

With four years ahead, they looked eagerly yet apprehensively to the excitements and educational opportunities which lay ahead for them.

Their entrance wasn't unnoticed! At first they searched for rooms, confused teachers, avoided senior hall, and walked in groups of three or more. But within a few weeks they had assumed their roles and blended into the high school picture.

The class selected Ed Collignon as their president with Chris Hoesli as vice president. Delane Clayton was elected secretary and the frosh chose Susan Yaggi as their treasurer.

Mr. Blazey and Mr. Waters were voted class sponsors.

For football homecoming the class representative was Sharon Duncan while Kelly Alvey served as basketball attendant.

Thank You!

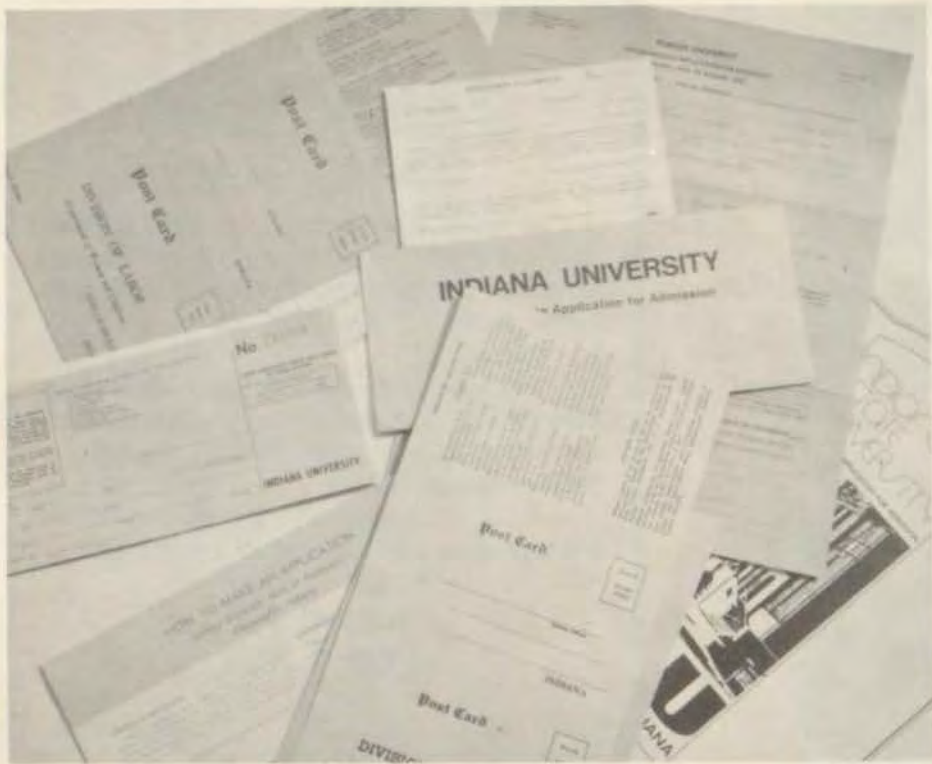

A lot of people have contributed time and money to help make this publication possible. We want to take this opportunity to thank them for their interest in the 1973 Sagittarius.

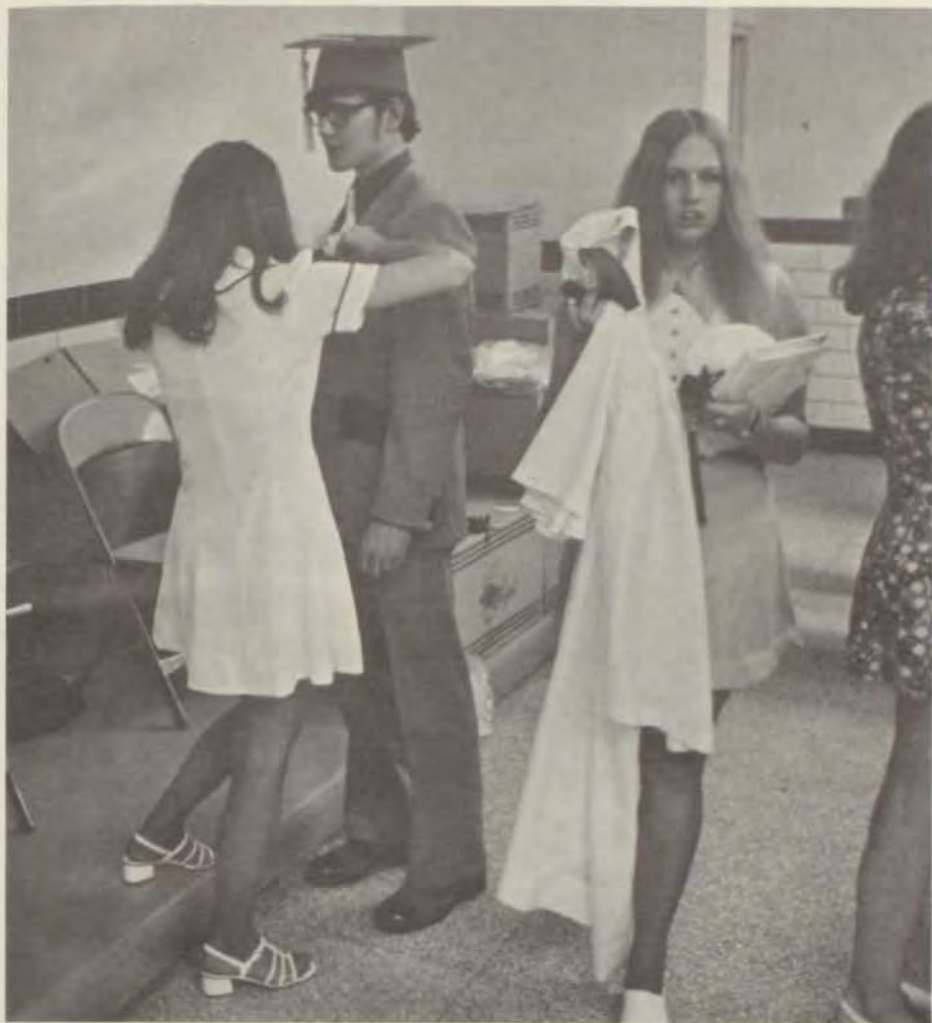

We would especially like to thank our advertisers, the high school faculty, the student body, and The News Publishing Co. for their cooperation.

And a special thanks to our chief photographer, Art Gerber of Photocraft.

The Staff

"You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should."
