ONWARD FLIGHT

We must remember things that have been accomplished even though we have experienced some failures and disappointments in life. While you are progressing in your "Onward Flight" of life, never leave your past memories or experiences behind you. No matter if your experiences have been pleasureable or frightening, there's always something to be learned.

The last twelve years have been a trying time for all of us. In our own way each of us has tried to become a part of a school group, whether it was by the way we dressed, what we ate, how we talked, or the way we acted.

Being yourself is the most important factor in life that many of us fail to do. Life was given so we could enjoy the things we liked most. Also it is a time when we can try new and exciting things.

The influence of others has caused many of us to hold back from our ideas, attaining our goals, or living our dreams. We should realize we have the power to achieve whatever we set out to do, no matter how unattainable it seems.

The most important thing to remember is that everyone has challenges, but how these challenges are met is what individualizes us.

As the year began, the staff had to consider selecting a theme for the '82 yearbook. Finally the present theme emerged from all of the ideas. What could better depict the idea of building our lives on our past experiences? The balloon symbol represents the knowledge, experiences, and memories that "float" with us throughout life.

As each of us were experiencing new trials and tribulations, the Sagittarius staff was busy putting together this yearbook in an attempt to capture at least a little of life as it happened in '82.

Tell City High was awarded a certificate for its highly educational environment.

The immunization program has been successfully conducted the past three years. Mark Hermann is shown with Nurse Moman.

Attending yearbook camp last summer were sponsor Miss Peter, and staffers Cindy Bolin, Becky Russell, John Rettich, and Jim Stoen.

Below: Even though school is a place for academic achievement, there are also some "fun" days throughout the year. Cheerleaders Cathy Kanneberg and Kammy Kast show spirit on Western Day.

Pep sessions at T.C.H.S. are a lot of fun. The hardest part is trying to get out the door.

Working on yearbook layouts is how John Rettich and Anita Sanders spend one of many evenings.

"You and I, and Tomorrow" was the topic for this year's oratorical contest. Some of the contestants entered included Paul Weber and Ellen Weber.

Although students were given a few days off this year, it was due to ice and not the snow.

Your "Onward Flight" of knowledge is something that will go with you even after graduation.

Drum Majors for the Marching Marksmen are Greg DuPont and Marci Heitkemper.

Below: College is just one option that seniors have for their future. In the counselor's office, senior girls look at brochures.

Queen for a Night

"An exciting experience" is the way Penny Ramsey summarized her election as 1981 football homecoming queen.

Penny, escorted by Tony Thomas, was crowned during halftime ceremonies at the Tell-City-Bosse game October 9.

Penny was elected by the entire student body who voted by secret ballot. All queen candidates had been nominated by the varsity football team.

Others nominated for queen included: Jackie

Evrard escorted by Mike Labhart; Debbie Moman escorted by Brad Henrickson; and Carla Strobel escorted by Matt Voges.

Junior Amy Kleeman, sophomore Kim Kemp, and freshman Stephanie Tsantis served as class attendants. Their escorts were Tracy Keown, Scott Strobel, and Marc Krieg, respectively.

Crown bearer was Emily Heubner and her escort was Andy Dickman. Roses were presented by President Joanie Evrard.

Roses and Royalty

This year's Homecoming took place on February 5. During the ceremonies Debbie Moman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Moman, was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1981-82. She was escorted by senior Brian Hildebrandt. Other senior candidates were Lisa Dauby escorted by Brad Henrickson, Lisa Frey escorted by Rick Schafer, and Kathy McGee, whose escort was Dave Sanders.

Class attendants this year were junior Amy Elder, sophomore Sherrie Daum, and freshman Jodi Phillips. Escorts were Scott Saalman, Steve Malone, and Mike Bishop respectively. The crown bearer, Stephanie Syler, was escorted by Mark Leeking. Right after the Marksmen's victory over Central, the Homecoming Dance was held. It was sponsored by the cheerleaders. It took place in the cafeteria and a variety of music was provided by Johnny Ashton.

'82 FAVORITES !

Going out to a show is something that most people enjoy. "Endless Love" ranked first by a landslide according to the poll conducted at TCHS.

Of all the food that gets devoured by the students, PIZZA was the number 1 choice of the student body. Perhaps this explains the need for four pizza places.

Choosing a favorite song is difficult because of the number of popular songs that are heard daily. The favorite tune on February 3, 1982 is "Centerfold".

All of us have that favorite night to stay home and watch TV. Evidently the TCHS student body is home on Wednesday nights to watch "THE FALL GUY".

Reminiscing Those Days

Above: There are hundreds of recording artists today. Some play soft rock, jazz, and even Punk. As the poll shows, hard rock group AC/DC is the favorite here.

Below: Since video games have become so popular, it is no surprise that the "Family Arcade" is voted in as our favorite hangout.

Above: The looks of a car did not bother most of us as long as we had something to drive. But, if we had our choice, it seems we would drive a Camaro.

Below: Even though fashion changes from year to year, jeans are still NUMBER 1. This year's fashion conscious teenagers prefer "Calvin Klein".

'tis the Season . . .

December 6 was the date for Tell City's annual Christmas parade. Many T.C.H.S. students played active roles in making it a success. The spirited caravan featured such attractions as floats, area bands, and Santa Claus.

On December 18 the band "Horizon" entertained the student body from 9 till 12 at the '81 annual Christmas dance. For the Pep Club's first year of sponsoring the Christmas dance, it turned out to be very successful.

Soon after the event, which kicked-off the holiday season, students were released for Christmas vacation. Due to the freezing rain the last two days of the semester was added to the student body's leave. Semester exams were also canceled.

Success

Outstanding leadership, scholarship, citizenship, character, and service enabled Chris Fischer to win the DAR Award.

Many students were involved in various types of competition during the past year. The yearbook staff wished to dedicate this page to all of those award winners of TCHS. Although there was no way to recognize everyone, we have selected a few student winners to share with the student body. To all who have won an award this year, we sincerely say CONGRATULATIONS.

Who's Who in Academics

Dedication is the key to being able to maintain a 3.5 average at the end of seven semesters and still be an active participant in a wide variety of activities offered at TCHS. Eleven of this year's seniors were able to do just that!

The Sagittarius staff wished to take time out to SALUTE each of them. We realized the total commitment each student made to himself and TCHS during the past four years. It took a delicate balance of sacrifice such as studying in the wee hours, dedication, and enthusiasm to maintain such a grade point average.

Because each of these individuals were so successful, the staff interviewed each to share with you their achievements, hopes, and fears. It is our wish that everyone might take a little more pride in their own work after reading this.

Pamela Lynn DeVillez has been active during her four years at Tell City High School. She participated in the French Club for 2 years; furthermore, she was active in the Pep Club for all four years. Pam was a member of the National Honor Society, and participated in the CYO organization at her church.

Pam said that underclassmen should work hard during their high school career. This will enable them to achieve the goals they want and also they should try to give assistance and support Favorite hobbies of Chuck Cravens were photography and bowling. In addition, he enjoyed listening to and playing basketball, baseball, football and tennis. Chuck was a member of National Honor Society, the French Club, and the Science Club. He was an active member of the Marksman staff.

Chuck said that underclassmen should use their time wisely because a student must have an appropriate balance between study and leisure time.

When asked about the problems of the world, Chuck said that he was concerned because any one country could start a devastating nuclear war.

Chuck attributed part of his success to his parents and teachers. He also pointed out that his own personal ambition helped him to achieve his goals.

Upon graduation Chuck planned to attend Indiana State University at Terre Haute. At this time he was interested in entering the field of Elementary Education. He considered obtaining a minor in French.

to others around them as they need it.

Thinking about the problems of the world around her, Pam decided the major problem of today is unemployment. There just doesn't seem to be enough jobs for everyone.

The people that helped her most during her career at TCHS were her parents, as they supported every decision she made.

As of right now, Pam had made no definite plans for the future. She did want to enter the business field.

Diane Dooley was active in many clubs and activities. She was a member of the Spanish Club, National Honor Society, Drama Club, CYO, Pep Club, Key Club, and Track Girls. She also took part in intramurals and was a member of the Marksman staff. Diane was on the track team. She attended the Honor Banquets during high school.

Diane's advice to underclassmen is to be "who you want to be and not who you think you should be in life". They must set their own goals in life and GO

FOR IT!

The only problem in the world, according to Diane, is egoism—everyone is in it for himself alone. She felt all other problems stemmed from this.

She realized that friends were an important part of reaching her goals. An extra hand or two seemed to make her work a little easier.

Western Kentucky appeared in Diane's plans for the future. She is interested in studying in the field of communications.

Patty Dupre kept a full schedule by participating in a wide variety of activities. These included National Honor Society, Pep Club, Spanish Club, Outdoors Club, Band, Young Life, Girl's Intramurals, the Prom committee, and serving as an office girl. She was a Girl's State delegate.

Patty feels that high school is the best time of your life, but also the start of adulthood. Therefore, she advised underclassmen to mix fun and education for a proper balance.

School took up much of Scott Etienne's time as he was involved in the French Club, in the Marching Marksmen Band, in the Pep Band, and also served as president of the National Honor Society. During his spare time Scott enjoyed swimming, fishing, gardening, and listening to music.

Scott felt that underclassmen should take the type of classes that will help them in the future. It is important to start planning for the future now. He also urged all students to keep trying and never give up.

When questioned about world problems, Patty felt the major problem right now is that most people are too concerned about themselves and they don't show enough interest in their fellowman.

When asked about the influences on her achievements, Patty felt that her parents and family contributed greatly. She appreciated all of their support.

She has plans to attend Indiana University where she hopes to pursue a career in working with the handicapped.

Pep Club, Spanish Club, Varsity Club, Varsity Basketball, National Honor Society, Intramurals, and being an office girl were all part of Joni Elder's activities. In addition she was on the tennis team her freshman year. She enjoyed all kinds of sports, reading, and corresponding with pen pals. In her remaining spare time Joni collected stamps.

In giving advice to underclassmen, Joni said they should decide what they want out of life and then go for it. They should set goals and strive to meet them. If they work hard, their goals are attainable.

Violence is the major world problem in 1982 according to Scott. People should just learn to get along with each other.

Various teachers and his parents have helped Scott through his high school career. They helped him achieve his goals. However, he feels his own personal dedication and hard work paid off most of all.

Scott is headed for the University of Evansville in the fall of 1982. He sees his future as becoming an Electrical Engineer.

Acrobatics, bike riding, and swimming were Kelli Everitt's hobbies. She was involved in cheerleading, in the Spanish Club, in Young Life, in the Pep Club, in National Honor Society, and in the Varsity Club. She also attended the Honor Banquets.

In advising underclassmen, Kelli felt that they should never underestimate themselves. If they want something bad enough, confidence in themselves will help them reach their goals.

In Kelli's opinion, the major problem

Joni feels the major problem in the world today is hunger. She feels it imperative that a solution be found in order to prevent starvation.

Her parents and teachers were instrumental in her achievements. It was important to know she had the support of those around her.

Attending Indiana University and majoring in computer science were Joni's plans for the future. She planned to use this knowledge while working in the business world.

in today's world is unemployment. She was worried that a solution might not be found soon enough.

Kelli's parents and friends played a major role in the achievement of her goals. Without their support her success in school would have been much more difficult.

Purdue University is in the future for Kelli. She planned to enroll there in the fall in order to pursue a career in engineering.

Marci Liz Heitkemper participated in the French Club, the Pep Club, National Honor Society, and she served in the band as drum major. In addition she helped with both the boy's and girl's swim team and taught swimming lessons in her spare time.

Marci felt that throughout their high school years, underclassmen should gear their classes toward college, then they will be set for anything. Also, they should take time to enjoy high school.

When asked about world problems Marci felt the major problem was that the people today get so involved in and Intramurals. She was also an office girl. Judy attended the Honor Banquet two years. As a freshman she played basketball.

Taking college bound classes was Judy's advice to underclassmen. She felt this would allow them to be better prepared for the future. They must set their goals high.

She believed that foreign affairs was the major problem in the world. However, she also felt that this would prove if we learned to communicate better with themselves that they don't take time to notice, help, understand and love others around them.

Her parents, Mr. Jim Ashby, her brother Mark, Mr. Earl Malone, and Sister Karen Byerly influenced her during her school career.

Future plans for Marci included attending Purdue University. It is here that she will study to become a nurse. After obtaining her degree she hopes to return and specialize in surgery.

Although she continued to maintain her grades, Kathy McGee was also quite busy during her high school career. She was involved in National Honor Society, Student Council, Pep Club, Science Club, French Club, and Intramurals. She also was an attendant in the basketball homecoming court. In addition she served her class as president.

When asked what advice she would give to the underclassmen, Kathy had this to offer. "Don't give up too easily." She felt everyone should fight for what they want and they will be able to attain it.

people from different cultures.

By forcing her to study when she really didn't want to, teachers and parents were influential in her achievements. She is appreciative of their encouragement. She realized that without their assistance, she would not have achieved her goals.

Judy's future plans included attending Western Kentucky University. She planned to major in one of today's rapidly growing fields, computer programming.

While taking part in National Honor Society, the French Club, and the band, Elaine Sibrel still found time to enjoy playing the piano and reading good books.

According to Elaine, underclassmen should work hard in high school. They should balance that work with a variety of extracurricular activities. Students need to use their time wisely.

Greed and apathy are what she felt to be the major world problem. She felt that most people are so involved in mak-

Keeping up to date with the national situation, Kathy felt the failure to stabilize the economy was a crisis.

The love of her parents and the encouragement of her teachers were contributors to her success. She is thankful for the support she received during her school career.

Kathy's future plans included attending Indiana State University. She planned on studying Psychology.

Judy Sandage's activities included Spanish Club, National Honor Society, ing money that they never take time to do anything that will benefit their fellowman.

Elaine agreed with the others when expressing her appreciation of her parents. In addition she felt her teachers were instrumental in helping her attain success.

At this time Elaine was uncertain of which school she would be attending. She was interested in choosing a vocation in the field of engineering or computer science.

Follow That Star

Afternoon thunderstorms may have changed many plans, but nothing could dampen the spirits of the class of '82 at their commencement exercises. The ceremonies were held at the Bryan Taylor Sports Arena on May 21, 1982.

Speaking before a capacity crowd were President Louie Holman and classmates Scott Etienne, Salutatorian; Elaine Sibrel, Valedictorian; Diane Dooley, Zack Etienne, Tim McMahon, Lisa Mills, and Mike Roberts. The presentation of diplomas by Mr. Wm. Wilson, Superintendent, was followed by a roar of cheers from friends and relatives.

Graduates and friends gathered in the cafeteria following the program to take pictures, to offer congratulations, and to finalize later plans. Emotions ran high as diplomas were examined to see each name in print.

Now the graduates were free to pursue their class quote: "This is our quest, To follow that star, No matter how hopeless, No matter how far." as they took up the challenges of careers, colleges, and marriage.

Below: The long awaited moment is over. The class of '82 can now be officially referred to as alumni!

Receiving her diploma is Alisa Moshenek.

Endless Love

Pastel colors, clouds, and an old fashion swing completed this year's prom setting. The theme song for the prom was the ever popular arrangement, "Endless Love".

Juniors, seniors, and their dates filled the National Guard Armory. John Saxton entertained the student body from 9 to 1 a.m.

The Junior Class sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom. Magazine sales helped to finance this special activity.

A special thanks should be extended to Mr. Robert Day and everyone who helped make this year's prom a very special and memorable experience.

ACADEMICS

"Health—Safety—You"

One's health, one's driving, and one's body all need to be in top shape and all three were promoted through Tell City's Health, Driver's Education, and Physical Education classes. The people who helped students to better understand their bodies and its functions were Mr. Robert Lochmueller, Mr. David Lueking, and Mr. Mike Page. The Driver's Training teachers were Miss Jody Patterson, Mr. Gary Katterhenry, and Mr. Lueking. Tell City's P.E. instructors were Miss Patterson, Mr. George, and Mr. Page, who also taught swimming. Mr. Lochmueller and Mr. George also taught the Alcohol and Narcotics classes.

Eight hours of simulation driving is required for Driver's Education. Yvette Collignon is practicing her skills.

Right: Listening to the school nurse, Mrs. Carol Moman, a health class learns the techniques of cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

Left: Students learn the fundamentals of both competitive and leisure sports. Participating in whiffleball, tumbling, swimming, and war are Rick Braun, Donna Dewitt, Sharon Sibrel, and Tina Voges and Rhonda Hanlon respectively.

Below Left: Learning the job description of an excise officer, the Alcohol and Narcotics classes listened to Jeff Lain.

Students master basic driving skills on the driving range before using these newly acquired skills on the street.

Bodies, Beakers, and Betelgeuse

Studying the stars, the nature of Physics, and performing experiments were all part of the science department at Tell City High School. Because of the curriculum, the teachers, and the fun which one received when the two were combined, many people enjoyed the classes.

Mr. Barnett, who taught Physical Science, Physics, and Astronomy, can introduce one to the nature of science. The Biology teachers who supervised the dissecting were Mr. Byrd and Mr. Varner, who also taught Advanced Biology. The Chemistry teacher was Mr. Richardson, who also observed the experiments which students performed in lab.

A wide variety of equipment, which the science department possesses, helped add to the excitement of class.

Below: Using beakers and bunsun burners, Scott Etienne and Lenore Borders complete the Chemistry experiment.

Above: Overcoming their initial fear is the first step in dissecting a rat.

Circles—Computers—Coefficients

The 1981-82 school year went well for the Math Department. As is usually the case, the students worked hard on their math studies. Mr. Robert Day taught Geometry this year. Mr. Louis Hall taught Algebra I and General Mathematics, while Mr. Allen Kramer taught Advanced Algebra and Trigonometry. A new face on the teaching staff this year was Mrs. Brenda Rose, who taught Algebra I and General Mathematics.

Above Left: Basic math skills are a necessity in all aspects of life in and out of high school. Randy Williams and David Harris review.

Ido

A wide range of English classes were offered last year at TCHS. The freshmen and sophomores were required to take a year of English and grammar. Juniors and seniors could choose from a variety of classes which ranged from literature to composition to drama.

Mr. Robert Waters headed the department and the instructors were Mrs. Sharon Buckman, Mr. Robert Godthabb, Mrs. Sandra Kramer, Mr. Cliff Miller, Miss Sarah Peter, and Mr. Mike Spencer.

Learning the art of theatrics, Dawn Morris and Chad Arnold get involved in one of the many plays they study.

Right: Hurrying to meet a deadline, Chuck Cravens creates a layout design.

The ability to remain calm while speaking before others is a trait possessed by Diane Dooley.

As with most literature classes, Adolescent Literature requires much reading.

Playing Password is just one of the tools Miss Peter uses to teach her English class. Pat Baumeister and Doug Dunn try to think of the elusive word.

Researching for an Advanced Composition paper, Candie Kendall uses the microfiche to find information.

Bridging the Gap

For students who wanted to learn another language, TCHS offered three language courses. The students not only learned grammar, but they also concentrated on learning to speak the language as well. They learned the culture of other countries by performing skits, by memorizing dialogues, and by playing various games.

Mrs. Mary Ann Horn, the chairperson of the Foreign Language Department, instructed the French classes. The German classes were taught by Mr. William Hintzen; and Mrs. Karen Mallonee instructed the Spanish classes.

Right: Their knowledge of the Spanish language is put to the test as the classes designed their own valentines with a Spanish flair. Diane Dooley, Joni Elder, Sherry Kress, and Tami Cassidy work diligently.

One of the unique experiences for Chuck Cravens and Tammy Johnson is sampling French quiche.

Creators

This year the Tell City High School Art Department offered a wide variety of activities. The students were exposed to calligraphy, pottery, painting, drawing, weaving, and sculpture. The ceramics classes took a field trip to Brescia College. There the students saw demonstrations of the craft of pottery making. Mrs. Janet Hatfield was the art instructor for the 1981-82 school year.

Preparing for the Tri Kappa art show is Debbie Elliot. Each year it is held at the public library.

Superb eye, hand, and foot coordination enables Don Swaney to use the potter's wheel effectively. Students fired their earthenware in the school's kilns.

Harmonize

The 1981-82 TCHS band had an exceptional season. The band performed many times throughout the year. They performed at the Schweizer Fest, gave several concerts, and marched in the Christmas parade.

Music Theory, Music Appreciation, and Dance Band were offered this year. The Music Theory class studied the basic music chords, scales, and triads. Dance Band put on five concerts last year.

The band director was Mr. James Ashby and Mr. Gary Hoover was assistant director.

Perfecting her solo, Tina Roos finds a quiet corner in which she can practice. She is accompanied by Miss Julie Conner.

Below: Learning to write music is a difficult task. The Music Theory students, such as Greg DuPont, are confronting this challenge.

As Mrs. Gibson critiques the ensemble, Mike Roberts, Greg DuPont, and Jim Stoen rehearse "A Thought Like Music".

Sing Out

Not all of the classes at TCHS used books and pens in their studies. Choir was only one of several classes in which the students used their talents.

During the class students practiced dance routines, learned vocal parts, and practiced for regional and state competition!

Choir consisted of many different groups. The Marksmen Singers, the Girl's Ensemble, the Mixed Ensemble, and soloists each practiced diligently under the direction of Mrs. Anna Gibson. She has taught at TCHS for the past two years. Accompanists for the chorus included Mrs. Nancy Sidle and Mr. Greg DuPont. Choreographer was Mr. Jack Pickett.

Much of class time is spent rehearsing for performances.

Scissors & Spatulas

For the 1981-82 school year, the Home Ec Department was headed by Miss Marjorie Town, who has been teaching here for over twenty years. She taught Foods I and II, Clothing II, and Housing. Mrs. Connie Litherland taught Clothing I, Foods I, Consumer Education, and Interpersonal Relations. She had been teaching at Tell City High School for the past five years. Miss Cyndi Roan taught Family Health, Family Management, and Child Care. She has been a teacher at TCHS for the past four years.

Learning to take proper care of children is a fundamental part of Child Care class. Kris Fischer and Penny Ramsey watch closely as Jackie Evrard practices safety procedures.

Learning how to cut up a side of pork is just one of the projects in the Foods classes.

Knowing what to look for when buying a used car is a necessity in life. Students from Consumer Education class learn first hand.

Caring

Health Occupations was just one of many vocational courses offered at the high school during the 1981-82 school year. In this class students learned such things as making up hospital beds, caring for a patient's needs, and helping the nurses with their duties. The students received first hand experience at the nursing home, at the school blood drive, and at the hospital, where they worked for part of the school year. The students were able to observe the nurses at work, enabling them to understand the importance of good nursing. The Health Occupations class was instructed by Mrs. Cheryl Harris.

Left: Being able to have new clothes is one advantage of the Clothing Classes. Learning the techniques of being a seamstress, Anna Clark perfects her talents.

Preparing rooms for incoming patients is one of the many tasks performed by Debbie Harpenau and Cindy Tucker.

Pieces of the Past

Students, who were interested in the history and government of our country and of other countries, found what they were looking for in the Social Studies Department. The students wrote reports on a wide variety of subjects, brought in political cartoons, watched film strips, listened to guest speakers, and, in addition, took many notes in class.

The classes offered last year ranged from World History to Anthropology. Graduation requirements for the freshman included one year of Introduction to Social Studies. Juniors were required to take a year of United States History, and Seniors were required to take a semester of Government and one semester of either Psychology, Economics, or Sociology.

The instructors of these classes were Mr. Raymond Carver, Mr. William Hintzen, Mr. Cliff Miller, Mr. Gary Morton, Mr. Richard Roos, and Mrs. Marilyn Scott. The chairman of the department was Mr. Richard Roos.

Right: Anthropology is one of the electives offered at TCHS. Examining fossils, J. Haaff, D. Moman, K. Levy, and A. Merkley learn a bit about the past.

Debating current issues in U.S. History are Susan Gillick, Susan Rogers, Ed Will, Laura Reisz, and Susan Blandford.

Designing appropriate displays for different holidays and events, students in the Distributive Education class use their creativity.

Enterprise

Having some knowledge of business can be helpful in almost any field, and the 1981-82 Business Department of Tell City High School offered many different business courses to help prepare the students for different careers.

This year, TCHS offered seven business classes. These classes were: General Business, Typing, Shorthand, Accounting, Business Mathematics, Secretarial Procedures, Business Law, and Distributive Education.

The instructors were Mr. Robert Busse, Mrs. Ginger Krieg, Mr. Steve Whitaker, Mr. Pat Richardson, Mrs. Cheryl Farmer, and Mrs. Pauline Marshall.

Shorthand students Debbie Moman, Jane Stffel, and Larky Wiram work quickly as the teacher dictates a letter.

Carpenter's Craft

Construction Trades, a Perry County vocational class held at Cannelton involves basic light-weight construction jobs within the community and class.

Building Trades and Electronics work together part of the year on building and wiring a house which the Building Trades class constructs and sells each year.

This year's instructors were Mr. Murphy, Construction Trades; Mr. Yuda, Building Trades; and Mr. Hahus, Electronics.

Above: The construction of playground equipment is no easy task, as shown by Barry Hammack and Scott Pannett.

Below: The building trades classes were responsible for finishing the interior of the house. Duane Harrison and Greg Dilger are among the many who do stuccowork.

Above: Each year a house is built by the building trades classes and is put on the market for public purchase.

Seasoned Designers

Graphic Arts and Mechanical Drawing were Industrial Arts classes. Mechanical Drawing, a pre-vocational class, included different techniques involved in three dimensional and architectural drawing. Graphic Arts incorporated the various ways for printing and binding along with the proper use of the machines that are used for each.

The Furniture Making classes were able to build an assortment of products. Students learned to use tools and machines which were needed to complete their various products.

Compasses, triangles, squares, and dividers are part of the orientation to architectural design as taught by Mr. Dyer. At the drafting table is David Ungerecht.

Steel

Welding, Industrial Maintenance, and Metals classes were part of Tell City's Vocational Programs. As with all of the vocational programs, Cannelton and Perry Central students attended these classes as well as TCHS students.

The instructor of Welding was Mr. Gary Dauby. He taught the basic types of welds. Mr. Lloyd Hauser taught Industrial Maintenance which involved the repair of industrial type appliances. He also taught the Metals class.

TIG, MIG, and SMAW are three types of welds studied in the welding department.

The use of various machines, such as the metal lathe, is studied in Industrial Maintenance.

Left: Specialized equipment is needed for metal work. The drill press is being used by K. Cronin.

Systems

Power Mechanics, a prerequisite for Vocational Education, involves the breakdown, examination, and repair of small engines. This class was instructed by Mr. Maurice Harpenau.

Mr. Ed Cissna taught the Auto Mechanics class in which student repaired and improved various vehicles.

Electronics class, a vocation which students took to learn the use of electrical theories and electronic equipment was taught by Mr. Hahus. Repairing electrical appliances and wiring a house were two topics covered in this course.

Emotions were running high because once again Tell City varsity football team made the play-offs. The Marksmen were up against Providence.

"Cardiac Kids"

With a heartbreaking 20-14 loss to Jasper in the regional, the football season for the Tell City Marksmen came to an abrupt halt.

Despite the disappointing loss, the Marksmen finished the season with an impressive 9-3 record and 2nd in the Big Eight Conference behind Jasper.

Overall, the season for the Marksmen was extremely successful. Both Marty Sweat and Brian Hildebrandt gained over 1000 yards rushing as Tell City claimed many close victories. Among these were wins over Owensboro Senior, Gibson Southern, Boonville, Vincennes, and Washington. Tell City possessed a certain ability to come-from-behind in nearly half of their victories which enabled Marksmen fans to dub them the "cardiac kids".

For their great seasonal performances, Brian Hildebrandt, Louie Holman, Andy Trowbridge, and Ed Hess received All Big-Eight honors.

Bart Peter, Denny Hubert, Steve Posey and Charles Amburgy led the reserve football team during the 1981 season. The team's record was 3-3 and 2-3 in the conference. Coach Morton says the future looks promising.

Conference Champs

This year's freshman football team tied the high school record for the best season by a freshman team. The team won eight of the nine games played. Coach Whitaker said, "This is one of the best freshman teams ever at Tell City." They played well and showed good character throughout the season. This year was the first time in school history that a T.C. freshman football team finished first in the conference. Jim George completed more passes than any other freshman quarterback. The season highlight was beating two undefeated teams, Vincennes 42-6 and Boonville 12-7. Coach Whitaker is looking forward to another successful season in the 1982 football year.

Bump-Set-Spike

"Becoming county champs was the highlight of our season," according to Coach Patterson and team members.

Outstanding play for the varsity during the '81 season included Leah Goffinet serving a total of 74 points for the season. Cathy Kanneberg led the team with spiking of 88%. Lori Aldridge led the team with 107 sets.

The varsity ended their season with a record of 6-12. Taking 8 out of 18 matches into 3 games, the team worked hard throughout their season and are deserving of their title.

The J.V. players ended the season on a winning note. Leading scorer was Jill Rust. Dara Hosler served 85% of her serves accurately.

Toe the Line

Giving a 100% effort, the tennis team had a winning season. The final record was 10-7. Facing tough competition they finished 4th in the conference.

Brian Noble, Mike Rae, and Scott Saalman tore up the courts for the Marksmen.

Brian won his sectional competition enabling him to compete in the regionals. Despite a valiant effort, he was defeated in the finals.

Coach Harpenau felt the tougher the competition, the better his team performed. Next year should be successful.

Harriers

Despite many devastating injuries and a mere six members, the Marksmen harriers managed to end the year with an impressive 82-20 record. In addition, they had a second place finish in the Big 8 Conference. Led by Most Valuable Runner, Matt Voges, the Marksmen were able to finish second in the sectional, second in the regional, and eleventh in the semi-state. A major accomplishment of the season was winning the Owensboro Invitational, which consisted of 15 teams. In spite of the small number on the team, the achievements were large.

STROKE

Ten of eleven records were broken by the '81 swim team. These are as follows: the 200 Medley Relay, which was composed of Kim Kemp, Sally Mills, Holly Becker, and Jackie Evrard, swam in the time of 2:09.44. Candy Becker swam the Individual Medley in 2:38.80 seconds and the 100 Butterfly in 1:15.87. Sally Mills swam the 200

Freestyle in 2:16.5, the girl's 100 Freestyle in 1:03.7 and the 500 Freestyle in 6:12.88. Kim Kemp swam her 100 Backstroke in 1:10.1. The 100 Breast Stroke was swum in 1:18.24 by Holly Becker. Candy Becker, Jackie Evrard, Kim Kemp, and Sally Mills swam the 400 Free Style Relay in 4:14.44 seconds.

The team finished with a 4-5 season. The finished 5th in the sectional.

Aqua Men

Although the team was young, they managed to break all of last year's records. The swim team finished its season with 5 wins and 3 losses.

The team's best performance was the last meet with Heritage Hills. Other highlights were the success at the sectional with the team finishing 5th and Dean Luecke and Tim Reed winning their sectional events.

Coach Page felt the future of next year's team was bright because the team was only losing two members.

Dunk 'Em

Although the varsity team didn't finish the season on a winning note, the crowd was seldom disappointed with the way the team played. The outcome of many games often depended on the last few minutes of the game.

Top scorers were Scott Sibrel with an average of 9.5 pts. and Dean Rothgerber with an average of 9.2 pts. per game.

Scott Sibrel won the award for the best FG% and was chosen as an optional for the All Star team in Southern Indiana.

 Marchand, A. Foster, B. Peter, J. Hagedorn. Row 4: M. Rea, J.
 Batie, T. Eberle, D. Moman, M. Hubert.

Although the record did not reflect it, the reserve team played well. They lost eight games by 4 or less points. Coach Harpenau felt that a slightly higher FG% would have resulted in a winning season. He also said that the team had an excellent defense. Leading rebounders for the team were Mike Rea, Denny Hubert, David Moman, Jeff Quick, and Mike Hagan. Early in the season Hagan and Quick were advanced to the varsity team. Harpenau feels that practice over the summer should make next year's team a success.

Man to Man

"Very hard working young men who played very well together," is how Mr. Katterhenry described the Freshmen team. This dedication enabled them to finish their season with a record of 12-7.

The team was runner-up to Jasper in the Invitational losing by 2 points. However, they got revenge on the home court with a score of 41-36.

Top scorers for the Marksmen were Mark Herrmann, Jim George, and Kevin Alvey. With the team's talent Katterhenry predicts a bright future.

Calling a time out, Coach Katterhenry changes the pace of the game.

The strong jumping ability of Marc Beller enables the Marksmen to gain control early in the game.

Free throws often make or break a game. On the line for the Marksmen is Mark Herrmann.

Wrestlers on the Roll

The first defeat of Mt. Vernon since 1973 showed the outstanding quality of this year's wrestling team. Even though no records were broken this year, the team proved itself with a final record of 8-5-1 and a conference record of 5-1-1 for a third place finish. The team also placed third in the sectional. Coach Morton said "the team worked hard and showed a lot of improvement as the season progressed". This proved to be true, as John Tuggle and Bill Elder won their sectional competition.

Coach Morton predicts next year's team should be excellent with 26 returning athletes.

Coach Yuda felt that the team's good background showed in their seasonal performance. Yuda added that even though the team was young, they held their own against the best of them.

The team had a winning season consisting of 6 wins and 3 losses. The highlight of the season was the team's victory against Jasper. Yuda says a lot of the team's future will depend on the new Freshman.

"Celebration"

Coach Patterson states that this year's varsity team was the first team she could remember where 3 starters scored in double figures almost every game.

The seniors were all leading scorers this season. The guards were a threat to the other teams. Lori Aldridge was the team's key rebounder. One improvement this year was the ability to get a lot of easy baskets.

Top scorers for the season were Lorie Poole—12.8 pts., Lori Aldridge—11.5 pts., and Joni Elder—10.6 pts.

The team's best performance was against Jasper. Another good game was against Southridge. The team was runner-up in the Boonville Sectional losing to Boonville 33-38. In the Conference the team tied for 3rd with Gibson and Southern Mt. Vernon.

Lorie Poole won top honors for being chosen to the Big 8 Conference Team.

The top scorers for the Reserve team were Jamie and Tina Voges and Michelle Lauderdale. The team's best performance was against the Vincennes Alices with the score of 30-24. Coach Whitaker said they were fun to coach.

Point Set Match

"We had a very young, inexperienced team this year. We were also plagued with injuries and illness. But, as the season went on, most players showed improvement and we hope to be at full strength next year." This was how the tennis coach, Connie Litherland, summed up the girl's tennis team of 1982.

Only four out of nine varsity players were returners: Senior Lori Aldridge played #1 singles; Senior Denise Goffinet held the #2 singles spot; Leah Goffinet, junior, played #3 singles; while Junior Beth Steen rotated between #1 doubles and a singles position.

The other five varsity spots were filled by the rookies of the team. Considering their inexperience, they played well. With only two players graduating, next year's team shows promise.

Up to Par

Keeping track of the scores, Coach Lueking is pleased with the results.

Under the direction of their coach, Mr. Dave Lueking, the 1981-82 golf team had a good year. He praised the team for their dedication throughout the season. Each member showed dedication.

Batter Up

Having a successful year, the baseball team improved in such areas as on base averages, batting averages, and fielding averages. All are statistics from midseason.

Larry Parker held the highest batting average. Scott Hermann held the record for earned run average. Highlights of the season included victories over North, Harrison, and rival Jasper. The Marksmen defeated the Wildcats by the ten run rule.

The future of next year's team looks bright.

Catching the reserve team was a challenge because all home games were cancelled. Therefore, there were no pictures of the team, but Coach Barnett gave us the following comments after one of the many varsity games.

The reserve team had a disappointing season. He did feel that they played well because all but one game ended with a one run difference. He hoped for a better season next year because their should be lots of returners.

"On the Road Again"

Having a touch of international flair, the boy's track team began the 1982 season. The varsity squad was composed of 16 members including Klaus Schwarze, a German exchange student, and Mike Jalmy, a Swedish exchange student. The freshman squad consisted of nine members.

One of the major events of the season included the Big 8 Conference Meet. Tell City received fourth place with 65 points. Tracy Minto was honored by being chosen for the Big 8 Conference team. Mike Hagan tied one of the records in the discus, 155'4".

Awards at the Athletic Banquet went to Craig Blandford, outstanding runner, and Tracy Minto, outstanding field event performer.

Both varsity and freshman should be commended.

Go for It

Ranking among the best of the runners are Katie Malone, Teresa Hildebrandt, and Debbie Ludwig. The team competed very well against quality teams, but simply didn't come close enough for a win. However, in conference and sectional competition the team did terrific finishing 4th in six of the contests. The girls had to beat the school rival, Jasper. Since they were unable to beat Jasper during the season, this was a great accomplishment.

Teresa Hildebrandt, Debbie Ludwig, and Holly Richardson did well enough in their sectional meet to move on to the regionals. Ms. Cyndi Roan, assistant coach, predicted an excellent future for the team.

Spirit

It's easy to be enthusiastic when your team has a winning record, but maintaining that same enthusiasm for a losing record is a difficult feat. The TCHS cheerleaders managed to keep that spirit alive during a winning football season as well as a losing basketball season.

The Varsity and Junior Varsity were unable to attend cheerleading camp this past summer. They created their own crowd pleasing routines.

The freshman cheerleaders enjoyed backing their teams. They appreciated the support of all the fans. Cassie Sabelhaus summed it up by saying, "We're proud of the teams, the fans, and being cheerleaders at TCHS."

Good Times

Many members of the student body were unable to participate in interscholastic team sports for various reasons. However, there were a variety of intramural activities in which many of the students participated.

In the fall there was girl's softball intramurals. A total of _____ teams were active in this sport. Games were played at the Little League field on Tenth Street. Many friends came to support and root for their favorite team. The S.S. Spooey Heads, a team composed of senior girls, took the first place title at the end of the season. A special thanks went to Bob Coyle, who volunteered his time to officiate.

The boys had their turn during the winter months as basketball intramurals began. Finding sponsors, purchasing new uniforms, practicing, and vying for the championship were all part of the excitement. Ten teams took the challenge. The winning team also was composed of seniors. It was sponsored by Nobles IGA.

In the spring girl's intramurals resumed. This time four teams played volleyball on Monday nights. Enthusiasm ran high and competition was keen. For the past three years the championship title has passed back and forth between two teams. The title went to the Tyler Defenders for the second year in a row.

The Students' Choice

Serving the student body as officers of the Student Council are John Hilgenhold, Joanie Evrard, Kris Fischer and Zach Etienne.

Convocations last year came from as far away as Liverpool, England. This was one of the many activities the Student Council sponsored last year. Others included football and basketball homecomings, parent's nights for basketball and football, fund raisers for the Jerry Lewis Telethon, and cards sent to staff and students.

The Student Council, as in past years, was sponsored by Mr. Murray Pride. Officers included Joanie Evrard, president; Zach Etienne, vice-president; Kris Fischer, secretary; and John Hilgenhold, treasurer.

The Student Council consisted of 36 representatives.

Sending sympathy and birthday cards is one of the Student Council's many goals. Michele Beller and Kris Fischer are in charge of this.

Fresh from Liverpool, England, The Union Jack Band performed for Tell City High School's student body. The music stimulated the audience who began to "dance in the aisles".

TCHS students get a closer look at chapter materials.

Vica

VICA, the Vocational Industrial Club of America, was founded last year at TCHS. This club had four chapters consisting of students in the welding and auto mechanics classes. Sponsors were Mr. Ed Cissna and Mr. Gary Dauby.

This year's members participated in contests at Jeffersonville and Vincennes. Some of the members also attended the state convention at Indianapolis. In order to raise money for their activities, the club held several raffles.

Viers and Sponsors—Front Row: S. Herrmann, B. Wilgus, T. Fortwendel, M. Conner, D. Smith, R. Basham. Row 2: Mr. Dauby, S. Luecke, R. Rogier, T. Shank, K. Cronin, S. Snyder, T. Harris, Mr. Cissna.

Representing the Varsity Club are Tim Reed, vice-president; Lori Aldridge, secretary-treasurer; and Larry Baur, president.

Varsity

The beginning of the Varsity Club was in 1958-59. Since then, they have been striving to give recognition to those students who received a letter in the various sports.

According to Mr. Spencer, sponsor, and Mr. Lueking, co-sponsor, the purpose was to get the athletes together.

Special events for the 1981-82 Varsity Club included a basketball raffle which was held first semester. The club was able to raise the sum of $245, which was used for a social at the end of the school year.

“!Hola!” “Guten Tag!” “Bonjour!”

The Foreign Language Department consisted of the French, German, and Spanish Clubs.

The Spanish Club had become quite active in the past year. It was sponsored by Mrs. Karen Mallonee, who was in her first year of teaching at TCHS. The club has gone on many cultural experiences including trips to La Catina and El Torito. They met every two weeks to decide on future activities.

The officers were Jackie

Evrard, president; Jackie Sabelhaus, vice-president; Trish Greathouse, secretary; and Lisa Stanley, treasurer.

Mr. Hintzen headed the German Club this year, as in past years. The officers were as follows: President Paul Weber; Vice-President Matt Waninger; and Secretary-Treasurer Mariah Scott. Their fund raising projects were held to help sponsor a summer trip.

The French Club was headed by Mrs. Mary Ann Horn. The club met at least twice a month. During the meetings, skits were performed at least monthly. Certain holidays were celebrated in the French manner with French foods, decorations, and music. These were unique experiences. Officers were: Kris Fischer as president, Kathy McGee as vice-president, Cindy Dauby as secretary, and Michele Beller as treasurer.

Above: Practicing their French speaking skills in front of the French Club are Jim Hoffman, Kathy McGee, Chuck Cravens and Michele Beller.

Gophers

The Bat Girls of 1981-82 were an asset to the baseball team. Heading this group of hard-working girls was Mr. Mike Spencer.

Some of the duties of these girls included keeping scores and statistics, announcing, and getting water for the thirsty players. In addition, they also had to pick up foul balls, retrieve thrown bats, and collect the equipment after each game. Supervising the track girls was Coach Bob Busse. Each was dependable because the track girls have various responsibilities such as announcing, timing, and judging. They were also responsible for moving hurdles, resetting the high jump bar, retrieving shots and discus, measuring distances, and holding the all important finish tape. They were kept busy.

Under the supervision of Mr. Morton, the Mat Maids gave moral support to the wrestlers. Some of their other tasks included keeping scores and statistics as well as supplying a clean towel.

Mat Maids are important to the wrestlers. Front Row: C. King, J. Smith, L. Gruver, D. Beatty, B. Steen, S. Tsantis, Row 2: B. Wargel, M. Reed, P. Reed, J. Phillips, A. Elder, J. Steen.

Leisure Time!!

As in previous years, Mr. Hintzen sponsored the Tell City High School Chess Club. The evening meetings were held on Tuesdays for both the beginners and the masters of the game. The beginners were taught the basics of chess, while the more knowledgeable members were matched for competition. They were able to create an enriched game and to sharpen their skills and strategies.

Mr. Gary Dauby and Mr. Gary Hoover revived the Outdoors Club during the 1981-82 school year after two years of inactivity. The club adopted the philosophy that "everyone enjoys and needs time in the out-of-doors". Their activities included an evening hike and an archeological dig. Hoping to increase their membership, the club was busy planning future activities. They were planning canoeing and skiing trips.

Left: Outdoor Club officers are Treasurer P. DuPre, Secretary T. Cassidy, President C. Burnett, Activity Director M. Meunier. Absent: Vice-President B. Wilgus.

TCHS students matched wits as they carefully planned each move of their strategy.

ONWARD FLIGHT

The responsibility of the 1982 Sagittarius was placed under the excellent supervision of Miss Peter and Mr. Waters. The editor was Cindy Bolin. She and the section editors deserved much credit for their hard work and dedication, as do the other twenty-three members of the staff.

The staff began work by selling yearbooks at the Schweizer Fest. Starting the second week of school, the staffers worked after school, at night, and on vacations.

Winning a free yearbook, Todd Keown, David Ziegelgruber, and Phil Mullis receive a refund from Cindy Bolin. Other winners included Carol Ramsey and Mr. George.

Revival

The Marksman newspaper was revived second semester at TCHS last year. Under the supervision of Mr. Robert Waters, this four-page supplement to the Tell City News was written by a small, but eager group of journalism students. It took them approximately two weeks to "put the paper to bed". There were four issues published. The staff should be commended for their fine effort.

Above: Before the paper is sent to the news office, it must be rolled onto layout mats.

Models

The National Honor Society consisted of the top students who excelled in the areas of character, leadership, scholarship, and service. In order to be considered a member of the National Honor Society, one must have a grade point average of 3.3 or higher for the first five semesters.

The officers were Scott Etienne, president; Elaine Sibrel, vice-president; and Diane Dooley, secretary-treasurer.

Some of the NHS members participated in an academic bowl at Brescia College. After this experience the society decided to sponsor their own bowl and invited surrounding schools to participate.

Below: Representing TCHS at the academic bowl are Paul Weber, Joni Elder, Scott Etienne, and Kathy McGee.

Elected officers of the Key Club are Dan Everly, secretary; Pat Fischer, president; Mr. Michael Page, sponsor; Ed Will, vice-president; and Lynn Donaldson, treasurer.

Sales & Service

During the 1981-82 school year, the Key Club was involved in many activities. During the football season, members parked fans' cars. They also sponsored the boy's intramural basketball and had a game booth at the 4th of July picnic. Some members attended the district convention.

Deca, a club for sales and merchandise, centered around vocational contests. Highlights for the year included the district contest at Vincennes and the state contest at Indianapolis. Eight students won in the areas of Interview, Sales Merchandising, and Parliamentary Procedure. This earned them the right to participate in the state contest.

Collecting food for the needy is Bill Elder, a member of the Deca Club.

Going to the district Deca contest are C. Terry, C. Basham, D. Stowe, D. Young, B. Elder, T. Jarboe, and B. King.

Sponsoring the second annual talent show, Tammy Nugent, Kim Heise, and Rita Purcell are in charge of ticket sales.

Sing! Sing! Sing!

The chorus, directed by Mrs. Anna Gibson, did very well last year. Students participated in the district contest in Evansville, and some went on to the state contest in Indianapolis. Three soloists and the Girls' Ensemble received a first place rating.

The chorus sold fruitcakes and held a talent show to raise money for new uniforms and sound system speakers. The talent show, now in its second year, was a success with over fifty entrants.

The Marksmen Singers were composed of a group of ten choir members and one alternate. They were selected from the auditions last year. The singers performed for various organizations within the school and within the community. Their show, which was seen on numerous occasions, was choreographed by Mr. Jack Pickett.

The accompanists played an instrumental part in the shows. They not only added to the enjoyment of the audiences, but also kept the members on key and in harmony. The pianists this year were Mrs. Nancy Sidle, Mrs. Anna Gibson, and Greg DuPont.

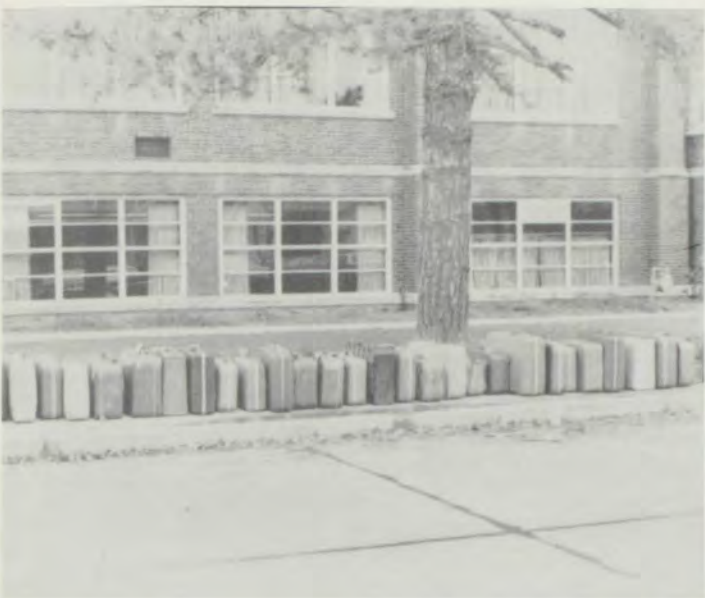

Solo and Ensemble contestants are—Front Row: C. Peter, J. Stuffel, C. Kanneberg, M. Muenier, J. Evrard. Row 2: G.

Wardrip, R. Purcell, J. Stoen, R. DuPont, C. Bolin, K. Heise. Row 3: P. Henderson, M. Roberts, M. Holpp, B. DuPont, M. Poehlein.

Getting ready to leave for Tennessee, much time is spent in loading the bus.

MUSIC ON THE GO

During the 1981-82 school year, the TCHS Marksmen Band worked diligently to perfect their performance. The band was conducted by Mr. James Ashby, who was in his 14th year of teaching, with Mr. Gary Hoover as assistant director. Drum majors were Marci Heitkemper and Greg DuPont. The most significant experience of the year was the trip to the Nationals in Jackson, Tennessee. Here they placed fourteenth.

In our own Marching Festival over 5000 people were involved in parade and field competition. We performed at the end as a host.

Band is a learning experience. Students, who seldom travel, frequently travel in band. They learn cooperation, discipline, and consideration for others.

The dance band performed for various community clubs upon request. They played for the Kiwanis Club, Christian Women's Club, REC Annual meeting, and many others.

The band members sold grapefruit, oranges, cheese, and sausage at various times during the year in order to raise money for their expenses.

The band hosts the annual marching contest in the fall. While the judges tally the final scores, our band performs a crowd pleasing routine.

Selling fruit is one of the many fund raisers sponsored by the band. Pictured are Marci Heitkemper, Barbara Parker, Kim Kemp, and Michelle Heitkemper.

“Back the Marksmen”

The Pep Club for 1982 prided itself on school spirit. Hat, tie, and “back the Marksmen” days were just a few of their many activities. For sectional, the members donned suspenders, garters and booster pins.

Some of the most memorable pep sessions were the ones with the male cheerleaders and the seniors imitating Sister Sledge.

This year’s club was sponsored by Mrs. Buxton and Miss Roan.

The Pep Club sponsored the 1981 Christmas Dance. Working hard to organize this dance, the profits went toward a scholarship for an outstanding senior that best typified school spirit.

Spotlight

The Drama Club, sponsored by Mr. Robert Godthaab, was very active this year. In November, the club put on the Woody Allen Comedy, "Don't Drink the Water", in which the Hollinder family, composed of Walter, Marian, and Susan were trapped in the American Embassy in Russia.

In April, the members put on a second presentation. "Dames at Sea" was a musical comedy. In this play Captain, Joan, Lucky, Dick, Ruby, Mona, and Hennesy put on a musical in a U.S. battleship after the theater they were to use was torn down.

1982

The Seniors of 1981-82 entered TCHS in full force, not believing that this was the year they had always waited for. Senior athletes and musicians did their best to uphold their excellence for the school. Academically, seniors did their best ever. This class held meetings in senior hall with the president giving his speech from the auditorium stairs, (this was something to see). They also did their share of pranks when the last day for Seniors rolled around. May 21, 1982 was both a happy and sad day for most; it meant telling friends good-bye that were going off to college and having happy thoughts of the future. Senior yearbook staff members would like to say good luck to the senior class.

Babies . . . Babies . . . Babies

Memory is a school where we Learn what only good can be Carried down across the years.
Time's eternal tapestry.
Living colors rich
and rare
Woven in a pattern
there.

Edna Jaques

Memories are an everlasting impression of something dear to one's heart. This year the Sagittarius once again printed the traditional pages of memories.
Ninety-four seniors were more than happy to share their baby pictures with us on the following pages.

The following pictures of the seniors were taken during one of the best times in their life.

Happy faces, sad faces, smiles of all sorts, are just a few of the many pleasures you will find.

So we invite you to casually sit back and study the faces of the 1982 graduates. Discover the memories that each senior had tucked away in his past.

Just in case you don't recognize a few, they are identified on pages 101-102.

More Babies

Seniors were once babies too. President Louis Holman was born in Perry County Memorial Hospital on July 9, 1963. Louie was bald and weighed 10½ pounds. Editor Cindy Bolin was born in Perry County on November 30, 1963; she weighed 6 lbs. 7 oz. and had white hair.

Athlete Brian Hildebrandt was born in Deaconess Hospital in Evansville. Brian weighed 8 lbs. and had blonde hair. Cheerleader Joanie Evrard weighed 6 lbs. 2 oz. having blonde baby fuzz. These babies were special to us.

Juniors were faced with a very difficult year. College preparations and curriculum programs required much time. The Class of '83 did a very good job of reaching their goal for magazine sales.

Much work went into the plans of prom to make it the best ever attended. At the close of the year, the Juniors began to realize that in one more year the security of TCHS would no longer be with them.

Class president was Jackie Dauby; vice-president, Scott Saalman; secretary, Cindy Dauby; and treasurer, Marty Sweat. Sponsors were Mr. Day and Mr. Katterhenry.

S O P H O M O R E S

The Class of '84 returned to school with mixed emotions. Many were relieved because the name "Greenie", tagged on them by the upperclassmen, no longer applied. Others looked forward to another year of classes.

Highlights for this year's sophomores included such events as the ordering and fitting of class jackets and class rings. This was also a year of independence. Many sophomores received their driver's license.

Class president was Barbara Parker; Vice-President Jill Tuggle; Secretary Debbie Ludwig; and Treasurer Cindy Brumfield. Sponsors were Mr. Barnett and Mr. Page.

When entering into TCHS, the newcomers had to adjust to the teachers, along with studying habits and extracurricular activities. The Freshmen proved they had a tremendous football team by winning the Big 8 Conference. Their future looks good.

This was our year to order class jackets or sweaters. Hurray!! We the Freshmen tried to back the Marksmen as much as we could and hope to for three more years. GOOD LUCK MARKSMEN!

Class president was Marc Beller; vice-president, Joni Kendall; secretary, Stephanie Tsantis; and treasurer, Julie Steen. Sponsors were Mr. Whitaker and Mrs. Litherland.

Administration and Faculty

The 1982 Sagittarius staff dedicates this space to offer long overdue recognition and congratulations to an often overlooked group of people at Tell City High School—teachers.

Each and every student at TCHS is fully prepared to the best of their abilities for life after graduation. The teaching staff at TCHS carefully plans and carries out this preparation.

While students spend a relatively short time at school, the teachers' days are much longer. They arrive at school early and leave late, after grading papers and helping students.

Teachers are not only instructors but also part-time parents, guidance counselors, administrators, and coordinators. Their professional ability earns the respect and admiration of their students, even to the point that many want to pattern their careers and lives as one.

The yearbook staff says "thank you" to every TCHS teacher for their dedication to their profession.

Secretaries Mrs. Rippy, Ms. Zoll, Mrs. Beatty and Mrs. Belcher are dedicated.

Custodians and . . .

Custodians keep the school in tip top shape by cleaning the building, doing the yardwork and helping teachers with problems in their class room. Thank you for keeping our school clean, so we may be proud of our school!

Cooking Staff

The cooks play an important role in our school. Preparing delicious, nutritious meals is very time consuming. Keeping the kitchen immaculate is also a huge task. We thank you for being so dedicated.

As the school year drew to a close, students looked ahead to their respective futures. There was college approaching for some, as well as jobs and leisure activities for others.

Though there are those that moved on to higher education and goals, all students carried with them experiences and learning which would be with them for the rest of their lives.
